Details of the Offering

Certain Provisions of the Series 30 Shares as a Series

The following is a summary of certain provisions attaching to the Series 30 Shares, as a series.

Issue Price

The Series 30 Shares will have an issue price of $25.00 per share.

Dividends

The holders of the Series 30 Shares will be entitled to receive, as and when declared by the board of directors of CIBC, a quarterly non-cumulative preferential cash dividend at the rate of $0.30 per share in respect of the three month periods to and including the last day of July, October, January and April, in each year payable on the 28th day of July, October, January and April. The first such dividend, if declared, will be payable on July 28, 2005 and will be $0.471910 per share, based on the anticipated closing date of March 10, 2005.

Redemption

The Series 30 Shares will not be redeemable prior to April 30, 2010. On or after this date, but subject to the provisions of the Bank Act, including, if required, the prior consent of the Superintendent, and to the provisions described below under “Restrictions on Dividends and Retirement of Series 30 Shares”, CIBC may, at its option, at any time redeem all, or from time to time any part, of the outstanding Series 30 Shares, by the payment of an amount in cash for each such share so redeemed of $26.00 if redeemed before April 30, 2011, $25.75 if redeemed on or after April 30, 2011 but before April 30, 2012, $25.50 if redeemed on or after April 30, 2012 but before April 30, 2013, $25.25 if redeemed on or after April 30, 2013 but before April 30, 2014 and $25.00 if redeemed thereafter plus, in each case, all declared and unpaid dividends to the date fixed for redemption.

Notice of any redemption will be given by CIBC not more than 60 days and not less than 30 days prior to the date fixed for redemption. If fewer than all the outstanding Series 30 Shares are at any time to be redeemed, the shares to be redeemed will be selected on a pro rata basis (disregarding fractions) or in such other manner as the board of directors of CIBC (or a committee thereof) may determine, subject to the consent of the TSX.

Purchase for Cancellation

Subject to the provisions of the Bank Act, including, if required, the prior consent of the Superintendent, and to the provisions described under “Bank Act Restrictions and Approvals” and “Restrictions on Dividends and Retirement of Series 30 Shares” below, CIBC may at any time purchase for cancellation Series 30 Shares at the lowest price or prices at which in the opinion of CIBC such shares are obtainable.

Rights on Liquidation

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of CIBC, the holders of the Series 30 Shares will be entitled to receive $25.00 per Series 30 Share, together with all declared and unpaid dividends to and including the date of payment, before any amount is paid or any assets of CIBC are distributed to the holders of any shares ranking junior to the Series 30 Shares. The holders of the Series 30 Shares will not be entitled to share in any further distribution of the assets of CIBC.

Restrictions on Dividends and Retirement of Series 30 Shares

So long as any of the Series 30 Shares are outstanding, CIBC will not without the approval of the holders of the Series 30 Shares:

- (a) pay any dividends on any Class B Preferred Shares, any common shares or any other shares ranking junior to the Series 30 Shares (other than stock dividends in any shares ranking junior to the Series 30 Shares);
- (b) redeem or call for redemption or purchase or otherwise retire or make any return of capital in respect of any Class B Preferred Shares, any common shares or any other shares ranking junior to the Series 30 Shares (except out of the net cash proceeds of a substantially concurrent issue of shares ranking junior to the Series 30 Shares);
- (c) redeem or call for redemption or purchase or otherwise retire or make any return of capital in respect of less than all the Series 30 Shares; or
- (d) except pursuant to any purchase obligation, sinking fund, retraction privilege or mandatory redemption provisions attaching thereto, redeem, purchase or otherwise retire or make any return of capital in respect of any shares of any other class or series of CIBC ranking pari passu with the Series 30 Shares; unless all dividends up to and including the dividend payment date for the last completed period for which dividends shall be payable shall have been declared and paid or set apart for payment in respect of each series of cumulative Class A Preferred Shares then issued and outstanding and on all other cumulative shares ranking prior to or pari passu with the Class A Preferred Shares and there shall have been paid or set apart for payment all declared dividends in respect of each series of non-cumulative Class A Preferred Shares (including the Series 30 Shares) then issued and outstanding and on all other shares ranking prior to or pari passu with the Class A Preferred Shares. See also “Bank Act Restrictions” and Approvals.

Issue of Additional Series of Class A Preferred Shares and Amendments to the Series 30 Shares

CIBC may issue other series of Class A Preferred Shares ranking pari passu with the Series 30 Shares without the approval of the holders of the Series 30 Shares. CIBC will not without, but may from time to time with, the approval of the holders of the Series 30 Shares given as specified below under “Shareholder Approvals” and the prior consent of the Superintendent, delete, vary, modify, and or amplify any rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Series 30 Shares.

Shareholder Approvals

The approval of all amendments to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Series 30 Shares as a series and any other approval to be given by the holders of the Series 30 Shares may be given by a resolution carried by an affirmative vote of not less than 66 ²/₃% of the votes cast at a meeting at which the holders of 10% of the outstanding Series 30 Shares are present or represented by proxy or, if no quorum is present at such meeting, at an adjourned meeting at which the shareholders then present would form the necessary quorum. At any meeting of holders of Series 30 Shares as a series, each such holder shall be entitled to one vote in respect of each Series 30 Share held.

Voting Rights

The holders of the Series 30 Shares as such will not be entitled to receive notice of or to attend or to vote at any meeting of the shareholders of CIBC unless and until the first time at which the board of directors of CIBC has not declared or paid the whole dividend on the Series 30 Shares in any quarter. In that event, the holders of the Series 30 Shares will be entitled to receive notice of, and to attend, all meetings of shareholders at which directors are elected, the record date for notice of which occurs after the end of such quarter and will be entitled to one vote for each Series 30 Share held. The voting rights of the holders of the Series 30 Shares shall forthwith cease upon payment by CIBC of the full amount of a quarterly dividend on the Series 30 Shares to which the holders are entitled subsequent to the time such voting rights first arose. At such time as CIBC may again fail to declare or pay the whole dividend on the Series 30 Shares in any quarter, such voting rights shall become effective again and so on from time to time.

Depository Services

Except as otherwise provided below, the Series 30 Shares will be issued in “book-entry only” form and must be purchased, transferred, converted or redeemed through participants (“Participants”) in the depository service of The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited or a successor (collectively, “CDS”). Each of the Underwriters (as defined below) is a Participant or has arrangements with a Participant. On the closing of this offering, CIBC will cause a global certificate or certificates representing the Series 30 Shares to be delivered to, and registered in the name of, CDS or its nominee. Except as described below, no purchaser of Series 30 Shares will be entitled to a certificate or other instrument from CIBC or CDS evidencing that purchaser’s ownership thereof, and no purchaser will be shown on the records maintained by CDS except through a book-entry account of a Participant acting on behalf of such purchaser. Each purchaser of Series 30 Shares will receive a customer confirmation of purchase from the registered dealer from which the Series 30 Shares are purchased in accordance with the practices and procedures of that registered dealer. The practices of registered dealers may vary, but generally customer confirmations are issued promptly after execution of a customer order. CDS will be responsible for establishing and maintaining book-entry accounts for its Participants having interests in the Series 30 Shares. Reference in this Prospectus Supplement to a holder of Series 30 Shares means, unless the context otherwise requires, the owner of the beneficial interest in the Series 30 Shares.

If CIBC determines, or CDS notifies CIBC in writing, that CDS is no longer willing or able to discharge properly its responsibilities as depository with respect to the Series 30 Shares and CIBC is unable to locate a qualified successor, or if CIBC at its option elects, or is required by law, to terminate the book-entry system, then Series 30 Shares will be issued in fully registered form to holders or their nominees.

Ratings

The Series 30 Shares have been given a preliminary rating of Pfd-1(low) n by Dominion Bond Rating Service Limited (“DBRS”) which has a negative rating trend on CIBC. The Series 30 Shares have been given a preliminary rating of P-1 (Low) Canadian national scale, A-global scale, preferred stock rating by Standard & Poor’s Rating Services, a division of The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc. (“S&P”).

A Pfd-1 rating by DBRS is the highest of five categories granted by DBRS for preferred shares. Preferred shares rated Pfd-1 are of superior credit quality, and are supported by entities with strong earnings and balance sheet characteristics. The “n” designation is attached to all ratings for securities that are non-cumulative. A P-1 rating by S&P is the highest of the five categories used by S&P in its Canadian preferred share rating scale. The “high” and “low” and “High”, “Mid” and “Low” designations for DBRS and S&P, respectively, indicate relative strength within the rating category. The absence of either a “high” or “low” designation in an DBRS rating indicates the rating is in the middle of the category.

Prospective purchasers of the Series 30 Shares should consult the rating organization with respect to the interpretation and implication of the foregoing provisional ratings. The foregoing ratings should not be construed as a recommendation to buy, sell or hold the Series 30 Shares. Ratings may be revised or withdrawn at any time by the rating organization.

Bank Act Restrictions and Approvals

CIBC is prohibited under the Bank Act from paying or declaring a dividend if there are reasonable grounds for believing that CIBC is, or the payment would cause CIBC to be, in contravention of any regulation made under the Bank Act respecting the maintenance by banks of adequate capital and adequate and appropriate forms of liquidity, or any direction to CIBC made by the Superintendent pursuant to subsection 485(3) of the Bank Act regarding its capital or its liquidity. As of the date hereof, this limitation would not restrict a payment of dividends on the Series 30 Shares, and no such direction to CIBC has been made. In addition to the foregoing restriction, subsection 79(5) of the Bank Act prohibits CIBC from paying a dividend in any financial year without the approval of the Superintendent if on the day the dividend is declared, the total of all dividends declared by CIBC in that year would exceed the aggregate of: (i) CIBC’s net income up to that day in that year; and (ii) its retained net income for the preceding two financial years.

Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations

In the opinion of Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP and Stikeman Elliott LLP, the following is a summary of the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations generally applicable to a purchaser of Series 30 Shares pursuant to this Prospectus Supplement and the Prospectus (a “Holder”) who, for purposes of the Income Tax Act and at all relevant times, is a resident of Canada, deals at arm’s length and is not affiliated with CIBC and, holds such Series 30 Shares as capital property. This summary does not take into account the “mark to market” rules applicable to a “financial institution” within the meaning of section 142.2 of the Income Tax Act and such Holders are advised to consult with their own tax advisors.

This summary is of a general nature only and is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice to any particular purchaser. Accordingly, prospective purchasers should consult their own tax advisors with respect to their particular circumstances.

This summary is based upon the current provisions of the Income Tax Act, the regulations thereunder (the “Regulations”), all specific proposals to amend the Income Tax Act and the Regulations publicly announced by the Minister of Finance prior to the date hereof and counsel’s understanding of the administrative and assessing practices of the Canada Revenue Agency (the “CRA”) made publicly available prior to the date hereof. This summary does not otherwise take into account or anticipate any change in law or administrative or assessing practice, whether by legislative, governmental or judicial decision or action, nor does it take into account or consider any provincial, territorial or foreign income tax legislation or considerations.

Dividends

Dividends (including deemed dividends) received on the Series 30 Shares by an individual will be included in the individual’s income and generally will be subject to the gross-up and dividend tax credit rules normally applicable to taxable dividends received from taxable Canadian corporations.

Dividends (including deemed dividends) received on the Series 30 Shares by a corporation will be included in computing the corporation’s income and will generally be deductible in computing the taxable income of the corporation.

The Series 30 Shares are “taxable preferred shares” as defined in the Income Tax Act. The terms of the Series 30 Shares require CIBC to make the necessary election under Part VI.1 of the Income Tax Act so that a corporation holding Series 30 Shares will not be subject to tax under Part IV.1 of the Income Tax Act on dividends received (or deemed to be received) on the Series 30 Shares.

A “private corporation”, as defined in the Income Tax Act, or any other corporation controlled (whether by reason of a beneficial interest in one or more trusts or otherwise) by or for the benefit of an individual (other than a trust) or a related group of individuals (other than trusts), will generally be liable to pay refundable tax under Part IV of the Income Tax Act of 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ % on dividends received (or deemed to be received) on the Series 30 Shares to the extent such dividends are deductible in computing its taxable income.

Dispositions

A Holder who disposes of or is deemed to dispose of Series 30 Shares (either on redemption of the Series 30 Shares for cash or otherwise) will generally realize a capital gain (or sustain a capital loss) to the extent that the proceeds of disposition, net of any reasonable costs of disposition, exceed (or are less than) the adjusted cost base of such shares to such Holder. The amount of any deemed dividend arising on the redemption or acquisition by CIBC of Series 30 Shares will generally not be included in computing the proceeds of disposition to a Holder for purposes of computing the capital gain or capital loss arising on the disposition of the Series 30 Shares. See “Redemption” below. If the Holder is a corporation, any capital loss arising on the disposition of a Series 30 Share may in certain circumstances be reduced by the amount of any dividends, including deemed dividends, which have been received on the Series 30 Share. Analogous rules apply to a partnership or trust of which a corporation, trust or partnership is a member or beneficiary.

Generally, one-half of any capital gain will be included in computing the Holder’s income as a taxable capital gain. One-half of any capital loss may be deducted from the Holder’s taxable capital gains in accordance with the rules contained in the Income Tax Act. Capital gains realized by an individual may give rise to minimum tax under the Income Tax Act. An amount in respect of taxable capital gains of a Canadian-controlled private corporation, as defined in the Income Tax Act, may be subject to an additional refundable tax of 6 $\frac{2}{3}$ %.

Redemption

If CIBC redeems or otherwise acquires Series 30 Shares, other than by a purchase in the open market in the manner in which shares are normally purchased by a member of the public in the open market, the Holder will be deemed to have received a dividend equal to the amount, if any, paid by CIBC in excess of the paid-up capital (as determined for purposes of the Income Tax Act) of such shares at such time. Generally, the difference between the amount paid by CIBC and the amount of the deemed dividend will be treated as proceeds of disposition for the purposes of computing the capital gain or capital loss arising on the disposition of such shares. In the case of a corporate shareholder, it is possible that in certain circumstances all or part of the deemed dividend may be treated as proceeds of disposition and not as a dividend.

Earnings Coverage Ratios

CIBC's dividend requirement on its Class A Preferred Shares which are classified as shareholders' equity in the consolidated financial statements of CIBC pursuant to the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants ("CICA") handbook Section 3860, "Financial Instruments—Disclosure and Presentation," after giving effect to the issue of the Series 30 Shares, assuming complete exercise of the option granted to the Underwriters to purchase up to an additional 4,000,000 Series 30 Shares, and to the items described under "Changes in CIBC's Share Capital" and adjusted to a before-tax equivalent using an effective income tax rate of 35.3% for the 12 months ended October 31, 2004 and 35.0% for the 12 months ended January 31, 2005, amounted to $204 million and $204 million for such periods, respectively. CIBC's interest requirements (including interest expense on preferred shares that have been classified as liabilities pursuant to adoption of CICA handbook Section 3860) for the 12 months ended October 31, 2004 and January 31, 2005 amounted to $283 million and $289 million, respectively. CIBC's earnings before interest and income tax for the 12 months ended October 31, 2004 and January 31, 2005 were $3,201 million and $3,347 million, respectively, which is 6.56 times and 6.79 times CIBC's aggregate preferred dividend and interest requirements for such periods, respectively.

In calculating the dividend and interest coverages, foreign currency amounts have been converted to Canadian Dollars using rates of exchange as at October 31, 2004 and as at January 31, 2005 which, in the case of U.S. dollars, were $1.2180 per US$1.00 and $1.2412 per US$1.00, respectively.

Plan of Distribution

Under an underwriting agreement (the "Underwriting Agreement") dated February 25, 2005 between CIBC and the Underwriters, CIBC has agreed to sell and the Underwriters have severally agreed to purchase on March 10, 2005 or such later date as may be agreed upon, but not later than April 8, 2005, subject to the terms and conditions stated therein, all but not less than all of the 12,000,000 Series 30 Shares at a price of $25.00 per share payable to CIBC against delivery of such Series 30 Shares. The obligations of the Underwriters under the Underwriting Agreement may be terminated if there should develop, occur or come into effect any occurrence of national or international consequence, or any action, government law or regulation, inquiry or other occurrence of any nature whatsoever which seriously adversely affects, or will seriously adversely affect, Canadian financial markets or the business, operations or affairs of CIBC and its subsidiaries taken together, and such event would be expected to have a significant adverse effect on the market price or value of the Series 30 Shares, and may also be terminated upon the occurrence of certain stated events. The Underwriters are, however, obligated to take up and pay for all of the Series 30 Shares if any Series 30 Shares are purchased under the Underwriting Agreement. The Underwriting Agreement provides that the Underwriters will be paid a fee per share equal to $0.25 in respect of Series 30 Shares sold to certain institutions and $0.75 in respect of all other Series 30 Shares, on account of underwriting services rendered in connection with this offering, which fees will be paid out of the general funds of CIBC.

CIBC has granted to the Underwriters an option to purchase up to an additional 4,000,000 Series 30 Shares (the "Series 30 Option Shares") at the offering price hereunder, exercisable with the agreement of CIBC, before closing of the offering. The Underwriters will be paid an underwriting fee per share equal to $0.25 with respect to the Series 30 Option Shares sold to certain institutions and $0.75 with respect to all other Series 30 Option Shares.

The Underwriters may not, throughout the period of distribution, bid for or purchase the Series 30 Shares. The foregoing restriction is subject to certain exceptions, on the condition that the bid or purchase not be engaged in for the purpose of creating actual or apparent active trading in, or raising the price of the Series 30 Shares. These exceptions include a bid or purchase permitted under the by-laws and rules of the TSX relating to market stabilization and passive market-making activities and a bid or purchase made for and on behalf of a customer where the order was not solicited during the period of distribution. CIBC has been advised that, in connection with this offering and subject to the foregoing, the Underwriters may over-allot or effect transactions which stabilize or maintain the market price of the Series 30 Shares at a level above that which might otherwise prevail in the open market. Such transactions, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time.

CIBC World Markets Inc., one of the Underwriters, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of CIBC. By virtue of such ownership, CIBC is a related and connected issuer of CIBC World Markets Inc. under applicable securities legislation. The decision to distribute the Series 30 Shares and the determination of the terms of the distribution, including the price of the Series 30 Shares, were made through negotiations between CIBC on the one hand and the Underwriters on the other hand. CIBC World Markets Inc. will not receive a benefit in connection with this offering, other than its share of the Underwriters' fee payable by CIBC.

Under applicable securities laws, BMO Nesbitt Burns Inc. is an independent underwriter in connection with this offering and is not related or connected to CIBC or to CIBC World Markets Inc. In that capacity, it has participated with all other Underwriters in due diligence meetings relating to this Prospectus Supplement with CIBC and its representatives, has reviewed this Prospectus Supplement and has had the opportunity to propose such changes to this Prospectus Supplement as it considered appropriate. In addition, it has participated, together with the other Underwriters, in the structuring and pricing of this offering.

Risk Factors

An investment in the Series 30 Shares of CIBC is subject to certain risks including those set out in the Prospectus and the following.

The value of the Series 30 Shares will be affected by the general creditworthiness of CIBC. CIBC's 2004 MD&A and 2005 First Quarter MD&A are incorporated by reference in the Prospectus Supplement. These analyses discuss, among other things, known material trends and events, and risks or uncertainties that are reasonably expected to have a material effect on CIBC's business, financial condition or results of operations.

Real or anticipated changes in credit ratings on the Series 30 Shares may affect the market value of the Series 30 Shares. In addition, real or anticipated changes in credit ratings can affect the cost at which CIBC can transact or obtain funding, and thereby affect CIBC's liquidity, business, financial condition or results of operations.

The value of the Series 30 Shares may be affected by market value fluctuations resulting from factors which influence the Bank's operations, including regulatory developments, competition and global market activity.

The Series 30 Shares are non-cumulative and dividends are payable at the discretion of the board of directors of CIBC. See "Earnings Coverage Ratios" and "Bank Act Restrictions and Approvals" in this Prospectus Supplement which are relevant to an assessment of the risk that CIBC will be unable to pay dividends on the Series 30 Shares.

The Series 30 Shares are equity capital of CIBC which rank equally with other Class A Preferred Shares of CIBC in the event of an insolvency or winding-up of CIBC. If CIBC becomes insolvent or is wound-up, CIBC's assets must be used to pay deposit liabilities and other debt, including subordinated debt, before payments may be made on the Series 30 Shares and other Preferred Shares.

Prevailing yields on similar securities will affect the market value of the Series 30 Shares. Assuming all other factors remain unchanged, the market value of the Series 30 Shares would be expected to decline as prevailing yields for similar securities rise, and would be expected to increase as prevailing yields for similar securities decline.

Stock market volatility may affect the market price of the Series 30 Shares for reasons unrelated to the Bank's performance.

There can be no assurance that an active trading market will develop for the Series 30 Shares after the offering, or if developed, that such a market will be sustained at the offering price of the Series 30 Shares.

Use of Proceeds

The net proceeds to CIBC from the sale of the Series 30 Shares, after deducting expenses of issue, will be used for general purposes of CIBC.

Legal Matters

In connection with the issue and sale of the Series 30 Shares, certain legal matters will be passed upon, on behalf of CIBC, by Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP and, on behalf of the Underwriters, by Stikeman Elliott LLP. As of the date hereof, partners and associates of Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP and Stikeman Elliott LLP, respectively, as a group, beneficially own, directly or indirectly, less than one percent of any securities of CIBC or any associates or affiliates of CIBC.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

The transfer agent and registrar for the Series 30 Shares is CIBC Mellon Trust Company at its principal office in Toronto.

Auditors' Report and Auditors' Consent—2002

Auditors' Report to Shareholders

We have audited the consolidated statements of income, changes in shareholders' equity and cash flows and the accompanying notes of Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce ("CIBC") for the year ended October 31, 2002. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of CIBC's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the results of operations and cash flows of CIBC for the year ended October 31, 2002 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles, including the accounting requirements of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions, Canada.

These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about CIBC's operations, business lines, financial condition, risk management, priorities, targets, ongoing objectives, strategies and outlook for fiscal 2004 and subsequent periods. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by the words "believe", "expect", "anticipate", "intend", "estimate" and other similar expressions or future or conditional verbs such as "will", "should", "would" and "could". These factors include: current, pending and proposed legislative or regulatory developments in the jurisdictions where CIBC operates, including pending developments in Canadian laws regulating financial institutions and U.S. regulatory changes affecting foreign companies listed on a U.S. exchange; political conditions and developments; market conditions; intensifying competition from established competitors and new entrants in the financial services industry; technological change; global capital markets activity; interest rate fluctuations; currency value fluctuations; general economic conditions worldwide, as well as in Canada, the United States and other countries where CIBC has operations; changes in market rates and prices which may adversely affect the value or profitability of financial products; and CIBC's success in developing and introducing products and services to a receptive market, expanding existing distribution channels, developing new distribution channels and realizing increased revenue from these channels, including electronic commerce-based efforts.

This list is not exhaustive of the factors that may affect any of CIBC's forward-looking statements. These and other factors should be considered carefully and readers should not place undue reliance on CIBC's forward-looking statements. CIBC does not undertake to update any forward-looking statement that is contained in this Prospectus or the documents incorporated by reference in this Prospectus.

The particular terms and provisions of Debt Securities offered by a Prospectus Supplement, and the extent to which the general terms and provisions described below may apply to such Debt Securities, will be described in such Prospectus Supplement.

The Debt Securities will be direct unsecured obligations of CIBC, constituting subordinated indebtedness for the purposes of the Bank Act, ranking equally and rateably with all other subordinated indebtedness of CIBC from time to time issued and outstanding. In the event of the insolvency or winding-up of CIBC, the subordinated indebtedness of CIBC, including the Debt Securities, will be subordinate in right of payment to the prior payment in full of the deposit liabilities of CIBC and all other liabilities of CIBC except those which by their terms rank equally in right of payment with or are subordinate to such subordinated indebtedness.

The Debt Securities will not constitute deposits that are insured under the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation Act (Canada) or by the U.S. Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

The Debt Securities will be issued under one or more indentures (each, a "Trust Indenture"), in each case between CIBC and a trustee (a "Trustee") determined by CIBC in accordance with applicable laws. The statements made below relating to any Trust Indenture and the Debt Securities to be issued thereunder are summaries of certain anticipated provisions thereof, are not complete and are subject to, and are qualified in their entirety by reference to, all provisions of the applicable Trust Indenture.

Each Trust Indenture may provide that Debt Securities may be issued thereunder up to the aggregate principal amount which may be authorized from time to time by CIBC. Reference is made to the applicable Prospectus Supplement which will accompany this Prospectus for the terms and other information with respect to the offering of Debt Securities being offered thereby.

Debt Securities may, at the option of CIBC, be issued in fully registered form, in bearer form or in "book-entry only" form. See "Book-Entry Only Securities" below. Debt Securities in registered form will be exchangeable for other Debt Securities of the same series and tenor, registered in the same name, for the same aggregate principal amount in authorized denominations and will be transferable at any time or from time to time at the corporate trust office of the Trustee for the Debt Securities. No charge will be made to the holder for any such exchange or transfer except for any tax or government charge incidental thereto.

Description of Preferred Shares

The following describes certain general terms and provisions of the Preferred Shares. The particular terms and provisions of a series of Preferred Shares offered by a Prospectus Supplement, and the extent to which the general terms and provisions described below may apply thereto, will be described in such Prospectus Supplement.

Certain Provisions of the Class A Preferred Shares as a Class

The following is a summary of certain provisions attaching to the Class A Preferred Shares as a class.

Priority

The Class A Preferred Shares rank in priority to the Class B Preferred Shares and the common shares of CIBC with respect to the payment of dividends and on the distribution of assets in the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of CIBC. Each series of Class A Preferred Shares ranks on a parity with every other series of Class A Preferred Shares.

Restrictions on Creation of Additional Class A Preferred Shares

In addition to any shareholder approvals required by applicable law, the approval of the holders of the Class A Preferred Shares, given in the manner described under “—Modification” below, is required for any increase in the maximum aggregate consideration for which the Class A Preferred Shares may be issued and for the creation of any shares ranking prior to or on a parity with the Class A Preferred Shares.

Modification

Approval of amendments to the provisions of the Class A Preferred Shares as a class and any other authorization required to be given by the holders of Class A Preferred Shares may be given by a resolution carried by an affirmative vote of not less than $66\frac{2}{3}\%$ of the votes cast at a meeting at which the holders of 10% of the outstanding Class A Preferred Shares are present or represented by proxy or, if no quorum is present at such meeting, at an adjourned meeting at which the shareholders then present would form the necessary quorum.

Rights on Liquidation

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of CIBC, the holders of the Class A Preferred Shares will be entitled to receive an amount equal to the price at which such shares are issued together with such premium, if any, as shall have been provided for with respect to the Class A Preferred Shares of any series and, in the case of cumulative shares, all accrued and unpaid dividends calculated to the date of payment and, in the case of non-cumulative shares, all declared and unpaid dividends, before any amount is paid or any assets of CIBC are distributed to the holders of any shares ranking junior to the Class A Preferred Shares. Upon payment to the holders of the Class A Preferred Shares of the amounts so payable to them, they will not be entitled to share in any further distribution of the assets of CIBC.

Each series of Class B Preferred Shares ranks on a parity with every other series of Class B Preferred Shares.

Restrictions on Creation of Additional Preferred Shares

In addition to any shareholder approvals required by applicable law, the approval of the holders of the Class B Preferred Shares, given in the manner described under “—Modification” below, is required (i) for any increase in the maximum aggregate consideration for which the Class B Preferred Shares or Class A Preferred Shares may be issued and for the creation of any shares ranking prior to or on parity with the Class B Preferred Shares, and (ii) if CIBC is in arrears in the payment of dividends on any outstanding series of the Class B Preferred Shares, for the issue of any additional Class B Preferred Shares or any shares ranking prior to or on a parity with the Class B Preferred Shares.

Modification

Approval of amendments to the provisions of the Class B Preferred Shares as a class and any other authorization required to be given by the holders of Class B Preferred Shares may be given by a resolution carried by an affirmative vote of not less than 66²/₃% of the votes cast at a meeting at which the holders of 10% of the outstanding Class B Preferred Shares are present or represented by proxy or, if no quorum is present at such meeting, at an adjourned meeting at which the shareholders then present would form the necessary quorum.

Rights on Liquidation

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of CIBC, the holders of the Class B Preferred Shares will be entitled to receive an amount equal to the price at which such shares are issued together with such premium, if any, as shall have been provided for with respect to the Class B Preferred Shares of any series and, in the case of cumulative shares, all accrued and unpaid preferential dividends calculated to the date of payment and, in the case of non-cumulative shares, all declared and unpaid dividends, the whole being paid first to the holders of Class A Preferred Shares before any amount is paid or any assets of CIBC are distributed to the holders of any shares ranking junior to the Class A Preferred Shares and thereafter to the holders of Class B Preferred Shares before any amount is paid or any assets of CIBC are distributed to the holders of any shares of any class ranking junior to the Class B Preferred Shares. Upon payment to the holders of the Class B Preferred Shares of the amounts so payable to them, they will not be entitled to share in any further distribution of the assets of CIBC.

Voting Rights

The directors of CIBC are empowered to set voting rights, if any, for each series of Class B Preferred Shares.

The following describes certain general terms and provisions that will apply to the Warrants. The particular terms and provisions of Warrants offered by a Prospectus Supplement, and the extent to which the general terms and provisions described below apply to such Warrants, will be described in such Prospectus Supplement.

Warrants may be offered separately or together with Preferred Shares. Each series of Warrants will be issued under a separate indenture (each, a “Warrant Indenture”) in each case between CIBC and a trustee determined by CIBC. The statements below relating to any Warrant Indenture and the Warrants to be issued thereunder are summaries of certain anticipated provisions thereof, are not complete and are subject to, and qualified by reference to all provisions of the applicable Warrant Indenture. The applicable Prospectus Supplement will include details of the Warrant Indenture with respect to the Warrants being offered. Reference is made to the applicable Prospectus Supplement which will accompany this Prospectus for the terms and other information with respect to the offering of Warrants being offered thereby.

Preferred Share Warrants

The particular terms and provisions of each issue of Preferred Share Warrants providing for the issuance of Preferred Share on exercise of will be described in the related Prospectus Supplement and may include the designation, number and terms of the Preferred Shares purchasable upon exercise of the Warrants, any procedures that will result in the adjustment of these numbers, the exercise price, dates and periods of exercise, the currency in which the Warrants are issued and any other specific terms of the Warrants.

Book-Entry Only Securities

Securities issued in “book-entry only” form must be purchased, transferred or redeemed through participants (“CDS Participants”) in the depository service of The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited or a successor (collectively, “CDS”), except that Securities issued in the United States generally must be purchased, transferred or redeemed through participants (“DTC Participants”) in the depository service of The Depository Trust Company, or a successor (collectively “DTC”), each as described below.

Canadian Purchasers: The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited

On the closing of a book-entry only offering made in Canada, CIBC may cause a global certificate or certificates representing the aggregate number of Securities subscribed for under such offering to be delivered to, and registered in the name of, CDS or its nominee. Except as described below, no purchaser of Securities will be entitled to a certificate or other instrument from CIBC or CDS evidencing that purchaser’s ownership thereof, and no purchaser will be shown on the records maintained by CDS except through a book-entry account of a CDS Participant acting on behalf of such purchaser. Each purchaser of Securities will receive a customer confirmation of purchase from the registered dealer from which the Securities are purchased in accordance with the practices and procedures of that registered dealer. The practices of registered dealers may vary, but generally customer confirmations are issued promptly after execution of a customer order. CDS will be responsible for establishing and maintaining book-entry accounts for its CDS Participants having interests in the Securities. Reference in this Prospectus to a holder of Securities means, unless the context otherwise requires, the owner of the beneficial interest in the Securities.

If CIBC determines, or CDS notifies CIBC in writing, that CDS is no longer willing or able to discharge properly its responsibilities as depository with respect to the Securities and CIBC is unable to locate a qualified successor, or if CIBC at its option elects, or is required by law, to terminate the book-entry system, then the Securities will be issued in fully registered form to holders or their nominees.

Transfer, Conversion or Redemption of Securities

Transfers of ownership, conversions or redemptions of Securities will be effected through records maintained by CDS or its nominee for such Securities with respect to interests of CDS Participants, and on the records of CDS Participants with respect to interests of persons other than CDS Participants. Holders who desire to purchase, sell or otherwise transfer ownership of or other interests in the Securities may do so only through CDS Participants.

The ability of a holder to pledge a Security or otherwise take action with respect to such holder’s interest in a Security (other than through a CDS Participant) may be limited due to the lack of a physical certificate.

Payments and Notices

Payments of principal, redemption price, if any, dividends and interest, as applicable, on each Security will be made by CIBC to CDS or its nominee, as the case may be, as the registered holder of the Security and CIBC understands that such payments will be credited by CDS or its nominee in the appropriate amounts to the relevant CDS Participants. Payments to holders of Securities of amounts so credited will be the responsibility of the CDS Participants.

As long as CDS or its nominee is the registered holder of the Securities, CDS or its nominee, as the case may be, will be considered the sole owner of the Securities for the purposes of receiving notices or payments on the Securities. In such circumstances, the responsibility and liability of CIBC in respect of notices or payments on the Securities is limited to giving or making payment of any principal, redemption price, if any, dividends and interest due on the Securities to CDS or its nominee.

Each holder must rely on the procedures of CDS and, if such holder is not a CDS Participant, on the procedures of the CDS Participant through which such holder owns its interest, to exercise any rights with respect to the Securities. CIBC understands that under existing policies of CDS and industry practices, if CIBC requests any action of holders or if a holder desires to give any notice or take any action which a registered holder is entitled to give or take with respect to the Securities, CDS would authorize the CDS Participant acting on behalf of the holder to give such notice or to take such action, in accordance with the procedures established by CDS or agreed to from time to time by CIBC, any Trustee and CDS. Any holder that is not a CDS Participant must rely on the contractual arrangement it has directly, or indirectly through its financial intermediary, with its CDS Participant to give such notice or take such action.

CIBC, the underwriters, dealers or agents and any Trustee identified in an accompanying Prospectus Supplement, as applicable, will not have any liability or responsibility for (i) records maintained by CDS relating to beneficial ownership interest in the Securities held by CDS or the book-entry accounts maintained by CDS; (ii) maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to any such beneficial ownership interest; or (iii) any advice or representation made by or with respect to CDS and contained herein or in any Trust Indenture with respect to the rules and regulations of CDS or at the directions of the CDS Participants.

U.S. Purchasers: The Depository Trust Company

On the closing of a book-entry only offering made in the United States, CIBC may cause a global certificate or certificates representing the aggregate number of Securities subscribed for under such offering to be delivered to, and registered in the name of, DTC or its nominee. Purchasers may also hold interests through a securities intermediary, banks, brokerage houses and other institutions that maintain securities accounts for customers, that has an account with DTC. DTC will maintain accounts showing the Security holdings of its DTC Participants, and these DTC Participants will in turn maintain accounts showing the Security holdings of their customers. Some of these customers may themselves be intermediaries holding Securities for their customers. Thus, each beneficial owner of a book-entry Security will hold that Security indirectly through a hierarchy of intermediaries, with DTC at the “top” and the beneficial owner’s own Securities intermediary at the “bottom.”

The Securities of each beneficial owner of a book-entry Security will be evidenced solely by entries on the books of the beneficial owner’s securities intermediary. The actual purchaser of the Securities will generally not be entitled to have the Securities represented by the global Securities registered in its name and will not be considered the owner under the trust indenture. In most cases, a beneficial owner will also not be able to obtain a paper certificate evidencing the holder’s ownership of Securities. The book-entry system for holding securities eliminates the need for physical movement of certificates and is the system through which most publicly-traded securities are held in the United States. However, the laws of some jurisdictions require some purchasers of securities to take physical delivery of their securities in definitive form. These laws may impair the ability to transfer book-entry interests in the Securities.

A beneficial owner of book-entry Securities represented by a global Security held by DTC or its nominee will have its Securities exchanged for definitive Securities only if: (i) the book-entry only system ceases to exist in the U.S.;

(ii) CIBC determines that DTC is no longer willing or able to discharge properly its responsibilities as depository with respect to the Securities and CIBC is unable to locate a qualified successor in the U.S.; or (iii) CIBC at its option elects, or is required by applicable law or the rules of the SEC, to withdraw the Securities from the book-entry only system in the U.S.

Unless otherwise specified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement, any global Security that is exchangeable will be exchangeable in whole for definitive Securities in registered form, with the same terms and of an equal aggregate principal amount. Definitive Securities will be registered in the name or names of the person or persons specified by DTC in a written instruction to the registrar of the Securities. DTC may base its written instruction upon directions it receives from its DTC Participants.

In this Prospectus, for book-entry Securities held through DTC, references to actions taken by Security holders means actions taken by DTC upon instructions from its DTC Participants, and references to payments and notices of redemption to Security holders will mean payments and notices of redemption to DTC as the registered holder of the Securities for distribution to its DTC Participants in accordance with DTC's procedures.

DTC is a limited purpose trust company organized under the laws of the State of New York, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a "clearing corporation" within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code and a "clearing agency" registered under section 17A of the Exchange Act. The rules applicable to DTC and its DTC Participants are on file with the SEC.

CIBC will not have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to, or payments made on account of, beneficial ownership interests in the book-entry Securities held through DTC or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to the beneficial ownership interests held through DTC.

Bank Act Restrictions and Approvals

Under the Bank Act, CIBC, with the prior consent of the Superintendent, may redeem or purchase any of its shares unless there are reasonable grounds for believing that CIBC is, or the redemption or purchase would cause CIBC to be, in contravention of any regulation made under the Bank Act respecting the maintenance by banks of adequate capital and adequate and appropriate forms of liquidity, or any direction to CIBC made by the Superintendent pursuant to subsection 485(3) of the Bank Act regarding its capital or its liquidity. As at the date of this Prospectus no such direction to CIBC has been made.

Restraints on Bank Shares Under the Bank Act

The Bank Act contains restrictions on the issue, transfer, acquisition, beneficial ownership and voting of all shares of a chartered bank. By way of summary, no person, or persons acting jointly or in concert, shall be a major shareholder of a bank if the bank has equity of $5 billion or more (which would include CIBC). A person is a major shareholder of a bank where (i) the aggregate of the shares of any class of voting shares beneficially owned by that person, by entities controlled by that person and by any person associated or acting jointly or in concert with that person is more than 20% of that class of voting shares; or (ii) the aggregate of the shares of any class of non-voting shares beneficially owned by that person, by entities controlled by that person and by any person associated or acting jointly or in concert with that person is more than 30% of that class of non-voting shares. No person, or persons acting jointly or in concert, shall have a significant interest in any class of shares of a bank, including CIBC, unless the person first receives Ministerial approval. For purposes of the Bank Act a person has a significant interest in a class of shares of a bank where the aggregate of any shares of the class beneficially owned by that person, by entities controlled by that person and by any person associated or acting jointly or in concert with that person (as contemplated by the Bank Act) exceeds 10% of all of the outstanding shares of that class of shares of such bank.

In addition, the Bank Act prohibits banks, including CIBC, from transferring or issuing shares of any class to Her Majesty in right of Canada or of a province, an agent of Her Majesty, a foreign government or an agent of a foreign government.

Plan of Distribution

CIBC may sell the Securities (i) through underwriters or dealers, (ii) directly to one or more purchasers pursuant to applicable statutory exemptions or (iii) through agents. The Securities may be sold at fixed prices or non-fixed prices, such as prices determined by reference to the prevailing price of the Securities in a specified market, at market prices prevailing at the time of sale or at prices to be negotiated with purchasers, which prices may vary as between purchasers and during the period of distribution of the Securities. The Prospectus Supplement for any of the Securities being offered thereby will set forth the terms of the offering of such Securities, including the type of Security being offered, the name or names of any underwriters, the purchase price of such Securities, the proceeds to CIBC from such sale, any underwriting discounts and other items constituting underwriters’ compensation, any public offering price and any discounts or concessions allowed or re-allowed or paid to dealers. Only underwriters so named in the Prospectus Supplement are deemed to be underwriters in connection with the Securities offered thereby.

If underwriters are used in the sale, the Securities will be acquired by the underwriters for their own account and may be resold from time to time in one or more transactions, including negotiated transactions, at a fixed public offering price or at varying prices determined at the time of sale, at market prices prevailing at the time of sale or at prices related to such prevailing market prices. The obligations of the underwriters to purchase such Securities will be subject to certain conditions precedent, and the underwriters will be obligated to purchase all the Securities offered by the Prospectus Supplement if any of such Securities are purchased. Any public offering price and any discounts or concessions allowed or re-allowed or paid to dealers may be changed from time to time.

The Securities may also be sold directly by CIBC at such prices and upon such terms as agreed to by CIBC and the purchaser or through agents designated by CIBC from time to time. Any agent involved in the offering and sale of the Securities in respect of which this Prospectus is delivered will be named, and any commissions payable by CIBC to such agent will be set forth, in the Prospectus Supplement. Unless otherwise indicated in the Prospectus Supplement, any agent is acting on a best efforts basis for the period of its appointment.

CIBC may agree to pay the underwriters a commission for various services relating to the issue and sale of any Securities offered hereby. Any such commission will be paid out of the general corporate funds of CIBC. Underwriters, dealers and agents who participate in the distribution of the Securities may be entitled under agreements to be entered into with CIBC to indemnification by CIBC against certain liabilities, including liabilities under securities legislation, or to contribution with respect to payments which such underwriters, dealers or agents may be required to make in respect thereof.

In connection with any offering of the Securities (unless otherwise specified in a Prospectus Supplement), the underwriters or agents may over-allot or effect transactions which stabilize or maintain the market price of the Securities offered at a higher level than that which might exist in the open market. These transactions may be commenced, interrupted or discontinued at any time.

Distribution Information Relevant to U.S. Purchasers

The information below applies to U.S. purchasers of the Securities. However, as of the date of this Prospectus, this Prospectus has not been filed as a part of a registration statement in the United States and the Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act. The Securities may not be offered or sold in the United States except in compliance with the registration requirements under the Securities Act, or an exemption from such registration requirements. This Prospectus will not be used in a public offering of the Securities in the United States unless it is a part of a registration statement filed under the Securities Act.

This Prospectus may be used by certain dealers in connection with offers and sales of the Securities in market-making transactions. In a market-making transaction, a dealer may resell a Security it acquires from other holders, after the original offering and sale of the Security. Resales of this kind may occur in the open market or may be privately negotiated, at prevailing market prices at the time of the resale or at related or negotiated prices. In these transactions, a dealer may act as principal or agent, including as agent for the counterparty in a transaction in which such dealer acts as principal. A dealer may receive compensation in the form of discounts and commissions, including from both counterparties in some cases. U.S. affiliates of CIBC may also engage in transactions of this kind and may use this Prospectus for this purpose.

CIBC does not expect to receive any proceeds from market-making transactions and does not expect that any dealer or affiliate of CIBC that engages in these transactions will pay any proceeds from its market-making resales to it.

Information about the trade and settlement dates, as well as the purchase price, for a market-making transaction will be provided to the purchaser in a separate confirmation of sale. Unless CIBC or an agent informs a purchaser in the confirmation of sale that the Security is being purchased on its original offering and sale, purchasers should assume that they are purchasing such Security in a market-making transaction.

In this Prospectus, the terms “this offering” means the initial offering of Securities made in connection with their original issuance. This term does not refer to any subsequent resales of Securities in market-making transactions.

To the extent an initial offering of the Securities will be distributed by an affiliate of CIBC, each such offering of Securities will be conducted in compliance with the requirements of Rule 2720 of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., which is commonly referred to as the NASD, regarding a NASD member firm’s distribution of securities of an affiliate. Following the initial distribution of any of these Securities, affiliates of CIBC may offer and sell these Securities in the course of their businesses as broker-dealers. Such affiliates may act as principals or agents in these transactions and may make any sales at varying prices related to prevailing market prices at the time of sale or otherwise. Such affiliates may also use this Prospectus in connection with these transactions. None of CIBC’s affiliates is obligated to make a market in any of these Securities and may discontinue any market-making activities at any time without notice.

In the event that any NASD member participates in a public offering of these Securities: (i) the actual price and selling terms will be disclosed in applicable Prospectus Supplements; (ii) the maximum compensation to be received by any NASD member in this distribution will be disclosed and submitted for approval to the NASD’s Corporate Financing Department (the “Department”); and (iii) prior to the commencement of the distribution, underwriting discounts proposed for use will be submitted to the Department for review. Underwriting discounts and commissions on Securities sold in the initial distribution will not exceed 8% of the offering proceeds.

Risk Factors

Investment in the Securities is subject to various risks including those risks inherent in conducting the business of a diversified financial institution. Before deciding whether to invest in any Securities, investors should consider carefully the risks set out herein and incorporated by reference in this Prospectus (including subsequently filed documents incorporated by reference) and those described in a Prospectus Supplement relating to a specific offering of Securities. Prospective purchasers should consider the categories of risks identified and discussed in CIBC's 2003 MD&A and 2004 First Quarter MD&A including management of credit risk and market risk, asset liability management, liquidity risk, changes in credit worthiness, risks of operating in a regulatory environment and those related to general economic conditions.

Use of Proceeds

Unless otherwise specified in a Prospectus Supplement, the net proceeds to CIBC from the sale of the Securities will be added to the general funds of CIBC.

Legal Matters

Unless otherwise specified in the Prospectus Supplement, certain legal matters relating to the Securities offered by a Prospectus Supplement will be passed upon, on behalf of CIBC, by Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP and with respect to the Securities offered by a Prospectus Supplement in the United States, Mayer, Brown, Rowe & Maw LLP. As at May 13, 2004, partners and associates of Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP and Mayer, Brown, Rowe & Maw LLP, respectively, beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, less than 1% of any issued and outstanding securities of CIBC or any associates or affiliates of CIBC.

Purchasers' Statutory Rights

Securities legislation in certain of the provinces and territories of Canada provides the purchaser with the right to withdraw from an agreement to purchase securities within two business days after receipt or deemed receipt of a prospectus and any amendment. In several of the provinces and territories, securities legislation further provides a purchaser with remedies for rescission or, in some jurisdictions, damages if the prospectus and any amendment contains a misrepresentation or is not delivered to the purchaser, provided that the remedies for rescission or damages are exercised by the purchaser within the time limit prescribed by the securities legislation of the purchaser's province or territory.
