

NOTICE OF REDEMPTION OF NON-CUMULATIVE CLASS A PREFERRED SHARES SERIES 23

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce ("CIBC") will redeem on October 31, 2010 all of its outstanding Non-Cumulative Class A Preferred Shares Series 23 (the "Series 23 Shares") for cash. The amount paid on redemption for each such share is $25.00 (the "Redemption Price"). All of the Series 23 Shares held by the person to whom this notice is addressed are to be redeemed.

The regular dividend for the period from August 1, 2010 to October 31, 2010 will be paid on October 28, 2010 in the amount of $0.331250 per Series 23 Share to shareholders of record on September 28, 2010. The dividend will be paid separately from the Redemption Price.

For Canadian tax purposes, the Redemption Price per Series 23 Share you will receive upon redemption is treated as proceeds of disposition. This is relevant for purposes of determining any capital gain or capital loss to a holder who holds the Series 23 Shares as capital property.

Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the tax treatment to them of the proceeds of disposition and any capital gain or capital loss arising on the redemption of the Series 23 Shares based on their particular circumstances.

Payment of the Redemption Price (less any applicable non-resident withholding tax) will be made by CIBC on or after November 1, 2010, on presentation and surrender by the holders of certificates representing the Series 23 Shares together with a completed Letter of Transmittal at any of the offices of CIBC Mellon Trust Company or its agent set out on the reverse side of the enclosed Letter of Transmittal form. From and after October 31, 2010, the holders of Series 23 Shares will not be entitled to dividends or to exercise any rights of holders of Series 23 Shares in respect of such shares, except to receive the amount paid on redemption.

DATED at Toronto, Ontario this 29th day of September, 2010.

Redemption of Non-Cumulative Class A Preferred Shares Series 23 (the "Series 23 Shares")

Tax Questions & Answers

The redemption of the Series 23 Shares will have various tax consequences. For Canadian-resident individual shareholders (other than trusts) who hold their Series 23 Shares as capital property for purposes of the Income Tax Act (Canada), this explains the general tax treatment of the redemption.

These comments are provided for general informational purposes only and should not be construed as legal, tax or investment advice. You should consult your tax advisor regarding the appropriate tax treatment of this redemption in your circumstances and how this would compare to the tax treatment if you sold your Series 23 Shares prior to redemption.

What amount will be paid on redemption?

On the redemption date of October 31, 2010, holders of Series 23 Shares will receive $25.00 per Series 23 Share, which is comprised of the $25.00 original issue price.

Separately from the redemption amount, a dividend for the period from August 1, 2010 to October 31, 2010 will be paid on October 28, 2010 to shareholders of record on September 28, 2010. The dividend will be $0.331250 per Series 23 Share.

How will this redemption affect my taxes?

For Canadian-resident individual shareholders, the redemption will result in a capital gain or capital loss, depending on your cost of the Series 23 Shares. This is explained further below. The dividend for the period from August 1, 2010 to October 31, 2010 will be subject to the gross-up and dividend tax credit rules normally available on dividends from taxable Canadian corporations. CIBC intends to designate these dividends as eligible dividends for the purpose of the gross-up and dividend tax credit rules.

How is the capital gain or loss calculated?

On redemption, you will dispose of your Series 23 Shares for tax purposes. This disposition may give rise to a capital gain or loss, depending on the cost of your Series 23 Shares for tax purposes (the "adjusted cost base"). The capital gain or loss is determined by calculating the difference between your proceeds of disposition and your cost (i.e., adjusted cost base) of the redeemed Series 23 Shares. Your proceeds of disposition will be $25.00 per Series 23 Share.

Assuming that your Series 23 Shares were purchased at $27.00 or $24.00 per share including acquisition costs, (e.g., brokerage commissions) the capital gain/loss will be calculated as follows:

	Loss	Gain
Proceeds of disposition	$25.00	$25.00
Less adjusted cost base	27.00	24.00
Capital gain/(loss) per share	$ (2.00)	$ 1.00

Generally, one-half of a capital loss (an "allowable capital loss") is deductible only against one-half of capital gains ("taxable capital gains") in accordance with the detailed provisions of the Income Tax Act (Canada). An allowable capital loss may only be claimed against taxable capital gains realized in that year, any future year, or one of the three preceding years. An allowable capital loss cannot be deducted from other income including dividends or deemed dividends.

What if I bought my Series 23 Shares as part of the initial issue on January 31, 2001?

If you bought your shares at $25.00 per Series 23 Share as part of the initial issue on January 31, 2001, your capital gain / loss will be zero.

What if I sell my Series 23 Shares before the redemption date?

If you sell your Series 23 Shares to a third party before October 31, 2010, you will realize a capital gain or loss. Your proceeds of disposition will be the sale price of the Series 23 Shares (net of any disposition costs, e.g., brokerage commissions).
