 - prior to commencing a campaign for election to public office; or
 - prior to acting as a director of a company, even where the activity is undertaken at CIBC's request.
- Copyright: A new section has been added regarding the need to respect copyright laws before using certain types of material.

In addition to this change, certain other technical, administrative or non-substantive amendments were made to the Code of Conduct.

Effective November 1, 2008, CIBC adopted amendments to the Code of Conduct to address the following issues:

- Harassment and Discrimination: The obligation to treat "others" fairly included in the Code of Conduct was clarified to include clients, suppliers and the public as well as employees.
- Beneficiaries and Powers of Attorney: The prohibition regarding accepting a grant of a power of attorney from a client was clarified to indicate that it does not apply if the client is a family member.
- Outside Activities and Appointments: The Code of Conduct was clarified to state that Compliance department approval is required before someone may act as a director of a CIBC subsidiary.
