Results for the third quarter of 2025 were affected by the following item of note resulting in a negative impact of $0.01 per share:

- $11 million ($8 million after-tax) amortization of acquisition-related intangible assets.

Our CET1 ratio<sup>(4)</sup> was 13.4% at July 31, 2025, compared with 13.4% at the end of the prior quarter. CIBC's leverage ratio<sup>(4)</sup> and liquidity coverage ratio<sup>(4)</sup> at July 31, 2025 were 4.3% and 127%, respectively.

"In the third quarter of 2025, we delivered strong financial performance by continuing to execute on our client-focused strategy, delivering further momentum, high-quality diversified earnings and top-tier returns for our shareholders," said Victor G. Dodig, CIBC's President and Chief Executive Officer. "In a dynamic environment, our proactive and disciplined approach to managing our business, robust capital position, and balance sheet strength continue to serve us well. Across our connected team, we are leveraging our strategic investments, including in our people, platforms, technology and artificial intelligence to deliver for our clients and create sustainable value for all our stakeholders."

Core business performance

Canadian Personal and Business Banking<sup>(5)</sup> reported net income of $812 million for the third quarter, up $119 million or 17% from the third quarter a year ago, primarily due to higher revenue, partially offset by a higher provision for credit losses and higher non-interest expenses. Adjusted pre-provision, pre-tax earnings<sup>(1)</sup> were $1,551 million, up $241 million from the third quarter a year ago, as higher revenue was partially offset by higher adjusted<sup>(1)</sup> non-interest expenses. The higher revenue was mainly driven by a higher net interest margin and volume growth. Adjusted<sup>(1)</sup> non-interest expenses were higher mainly due to higher spending on technology and other strategic initiatives and employee-related compensation.

Canadian Commercial Banking and Wealth Management<sup>(5)</sup> reported net income of $598 million for the third quarter, up $97 million or 19% from the third quarter a year ago, primarily due to higher revenue, partially offset by higher non-interest expenses. Adjusted pre-provision, pre-tax earnings<sup>(1)</sup> were $844 million, up $114 million from the third quarter a year ago, as higher revenue was partially offset by higher non-interest expenses. Commercial banking revenue was higher compared to the prior year due to volume growth and favourable margins. In wealth management, the increase in revenue was due to higher fee-based revenue from higher average assets under administration (AUA) and assets under management (AUM) balances as a result of market appreciation, higher net interest margin, and higher commission revenue from increased client activity. Expenses increased primarily due to higher performance-based compensation, higher spending on technology and other strategic initiatives, and higher employee-related compensation.

(1) This measure is a non-GAAP measure. For additional information, see the "Non-GAAP measures" section, including the quantitative reconciliations of reported GAAP measures to: adjusted non-interest expenses and adjusted net income on pages 3 to 7; and adjusted pre-provision, pre-tax earnings on page 8.

(2) Certain additional disclosures for these specified financial measures have been incorporated by reference and can be found in the "Glossary" section of our Report to Shareholders for the third quarter of 2025 available on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.com.

(3) Average balances are calculated as a weighted average of daily closing balances.

(4) Our capital ratios are calculated pursuant to the Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institution's (OSFI's) Capital Adequacy Requirements (CAR) Guideline and the leverage ratio is calculated pursuant to OSFI's Leverage Requirements Guideline, all of which are based on the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (BCBS) standards. For additional information, see the "Capital management" and "Liquidity risk" sections of our Report to Shareholders for the third quarter of 2025 available on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.com.

(5) Certain prior period information has been restated for changes made to our business segments. For additional information, see the "External reporting changes" section of our Report to Shareholders for the third quarter of 2025, available on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.com.

U.S. Commercial Banking and Wealth Management<sup>(1)</sup> reported net income of $254 million (US$186 million) for the third quarter, up $38 million (US$27 million or 17%) from the third quarter a year ago, primarily due to higher revenue and a lower provision for credit losses, partially offset by higher non-interest expenses. Adjusted pre-provision, pre-tax earnings<sup>(2)</sup> were $344 million (US$252 million), up $23 million (US$17 million or 7%) from the third quarter a year ago, as revenue growth was higher than growth in adjusted<sup>(2)</sup> non-interest expenses. In commercial banking, higher revenue was primarily due to higher volumes. Higher revenue in wealth management was primarily due to higher net interest margin and fee-based revenue from higher average AUM balances due to market appreciation. Adjusted<sup>(2)</sup> non-interest expenses increased mainly due to higher performance-based and employee-related compensation.

Capital Markets<sup>(1)</sup> reported net income of $540 million for the third quarter, up $251 million or 87% from the third quarter a year ago, primarily due to higher revenue, partially offset by higher non-interest expenses and a higher provision for credit losses. Adjusted pre-provision, pre-tax earnings<sup>(2)</sup> were up $221 million or 39% from the third quarter a year ago due to higher revenue from our global markets and corporate and investment banking businesses. Global markets revenue was up driven by higher financing revenue and higher fixed income trading revenue. Corporate and investment banking revenue was up driven by higher underwriting and advisory activity and higher corporate banking revenue. Expenses were up due to higher performance-based and employee-related compensation, and higher spending on technology and other strategic initiatives.

Credit quality

Provision for credit losses was $559 million, up $76 million from the same quarter last year. Provision for credit losses on performing loans was comparable with the same quarter last year. An unfavourable change in our economic outlook was partially offset by favourable credit migration in the current quarter. Provision for credit losses on impaired loans was up due to higher provisions in Canadian Personal and Business Banking, and U.S. Commercial Banking and Wealth Management.

Key highlights across our bank in the third quarter of 2025 included:

- CIBC deployed its in-house Generative AI platform, CIBC AI, enterprise-wide to help drive further productivity across the organization and enable team members to deliver on the bank's client-focused strategy.
- CIBC won the 2025 Digital CX Award for Best Use of AI for Customer Experience from The Digital Banker, recognizing the bank's innovative AI-powered voice assistant.
- CIBC received the highest ranking in customer satisfaction for both online and mobile banking among Canada's Big 5 banks by J.D. Power and was named a 2025 Forrester Customer-Obsessed Enterprise award winner, the only retail bank in North America to receive this award.
- CIBC launched the no annual fee CIBC Adapta™ Mastercard® that automatically adapts to clients' spending practices which supports our strategic priorities of gaining share in the credit card space, delivering seamless client experiences and best-in-class advice.
- CIBC announced the launch of a new dedicated Business Banking program tailored for skilled trades professionals. This initiative builds on the success of CIBC's first-of-its-kind skilled trades Personal Banking program. Together, these initiatives are designed to enhance support for a sector that is crucial to the Canadian economy.
- CIBC Capital Markets was recognized as Global Capital's 2024 Most Impressive Supranational, Sovereign and Agency House for the Canadian market.

Making a difference in our communities

At CIBC, we believe there should be no limits to ambition. We invest our time and resources to remove barriers to ambitions and demonstrate that when we come together, positive change happens that helps our communities thrive. This quarter:

- CIBC was announced as national partner and Official Banking Partner of Special Olympics Team Canada. This partnership will help ensure Special Olympics Team Canada athletes receive essential training, health and mental preparation, and the dedicated coaching and support they need to achieve their ambitions.
- The CIBC Foundation and the TELUS Friendly Future Foundation announced a transformative $2 million partnership to launch the TELUS Momentum Student Bursary, powered by the CIBC Foundation. With each foundation contributing $1 million, this multi-year partnership will support up to 500 young changemakers from the Black community, helping them accelerate their ambitions and impact across the globe.
- Team CIBC raised $1.32 million dollars for the 29th annual Tour CIBC Charles-Bruneau, exceeding its goal. This year the event raised $3.75 million for children with cancer and marked CIBC's 19th year as title partner of the Tour, with the bank having now raised over $14.36 million since 2006 for the Charles-Bruneau Foundation.
- CIBC donated $150,000 to provide support to those affected by the wildfires and evacuation efforts across impacted areas.

(1) Certain prior period information has been restated for changes made to our business segments. For additional information, see the "External reporting changes" section of our Report to Shareholders for the third quarter of 2025, available on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.com.

(2) This measure is a non-GAAP measure. For additional information and a reconciliation of reported results to adjusted results, where applicable, see the "Non-GAAP measures" section.

Non-GAAP measures

We use a number of financial measures to assess the performance of our business lines as described below. Some measures are calculated in accordance with GAAP (International Financial Reporting Standards), while other measures do not have a standardized meaning under GAAP, and accordingly, these measures may not be comparable to similar measures used by other companies. Investors may find these non-GAAP measures, which include non-GAAP financial measures and non-GAAP ratios as defined in National Instrument 52-112 "Non-GAAP and Other Financial Measures Disclosure", useful in understanding how management views underlying business performance.

Management assesses results on a reported and adjusted basis and considers both as useful measures of performance. Adjusted measures, which include adjusted total revenue, adjusted provision for credit losses, adjusted non-interest expenses, adjusted income before income taxes, adjusted income taxes, adjusted net income and adjusted pre-provision, pre-tax earnings, remove items of note reported results to calculate our adjusted results. Adjusted measures represent non-GAAP measures. Non-GAAP ratios include an adjusted measure as one or more of their components. Non-GAAP ratios include adjusted diluted EPS, adjusted efficiency ratio, adjusted operating leverage, adjusted dividend payout ratio, adjusted return on common shareholders' equity and adjusted effective tax rate.

Certain additional disclosures for these specified financial measures have been incorporated by reference and can be found in the "Non-GAAP measures" section of our Report to Shareholders for the third quarter of 2025 available on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.com.

The Board of Directors of CIBC reviewed this news release prior to it being issued. CIBC's controls and procedures support the ability of the President and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of CIBC to certify CIBC's third quarter financial report and controls and procedures. CIBC's CEO and CFO will voluntarily provide to the United States (U.S.) Securities and Exchange Commission a certification relating to CIBC's third quarter financial information, including the unaudited interim consolidated financial statements, and will provide the same certification to the Canadian Securities Administrators.

All amounts are in Canadian dollars and are based on financial statements prepared in compliance with International Accounting Standard 34 Interim Financial Reporting, unless otherwise noted.

A NOTE ABOUT FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

From time to time, we make written or oral forward-looking statements within the meaning of certain securities laws, including in this news release, in other filings with Canadian securities regulators or the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, in other reports to shareholders, and in other communications. All such statements are made pursuant to the "safe harbour" provisions of, and are intended to be forward-looking statements under applicable Canadian and U.S. securities legislation, including the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements include, but are not limited to, statements about our operations, business lines, financial condition, risk management, priorities, targets and sustainability commitments (including with respect to our 2050 net-zero ambition and our environmental, social and governance (ESG) related activities), ongoing objectives, strategies, the regulatory environment in which we operate and outlook for calendar year 2025 and subsequent periods. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by the words "believe", "expect", "anticipate", "intend", "estimate", "forecast", "target", "predict", "commit", "ambition", "goal", "strive", "project", "objective" and other similar expressions or future or conditional verbs such as "will", "may", "should", "would" and "could". By their nature, these statements require us to make assumptions, and are subject to inherent risks and uncertainties that may be general or specific. Given the potential recession risks tied to the actual and proposed U.S. imposition of tariffs on Canada and other countries and their countermeasures, the continuing impact of hybrid work arrangements and high interest rates on the U.S. real estate sector, and the war in Ukraine and conflict in the Middle East on the global economy, financial markets, and our business, results of operations, reputation and financial condition, there is inherently more uncertainty associated with our assumptions as compared to prior periods. A variety of factors, many of which are beyond our control, affect our operations, performance and results, and could cause actual results to differ materially from the expectations expressed in any of our forward-looking statements. These factors include: trade policies and tensions, including tariffs; inflationary pressures in the U.S.; global supply-chain disruptions; geopolitical risk, including from the war in Ukraine and conflict in the Middle East; the impact of post-pandemic hybrid work arrangements; credit, market, liquidity, strategic, insurance, operational, reputation, conduct and legal, regulatory and environmental risk; currency value and interest rate fluctuations, including as a result of market and oil price volatility; the effectiveness and adequacy of our risk management and valuation models and processes; legislative or regulatory developments in the jurisdictions where we operate, including the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development Common Reporting Standard, and regulatory reforms in the United Kingdom and Europe, the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision's global standards for capital and liquidity reform, and those relating to bank recapitalization legislation and the payments system in Canada; amendments to, and interpretations of, risk-based capital guidelines and reporting instructions, and interest rate and liquidity regulatory guidance; exposure to, and the resolution of, significant litigation or regulatory matters, our ability to successfully appeal adverse outcomes of such matters and the timing, determination and recovery of amounts related to such matters; the effect of changes to accounting standards, rules and interpretations; changes in our estimates of reserves and allowances; changes in tax laws; changes to our credit ratings; political conditions and developments, including changes relating to economic or trade matters such as tariffs; the possible effect on our business of international conflicts, such as the war in Ukraine and conflict in the Middle East, and terrorism; natural disasters, disruptions to public infrastructure and other catastrophic events; the occurrence of public health emergencies and any related government policies and actions; reliance on third parties to provide components of our business infrastructure; potential disruptions to our information technology systems and services; increasing cyber security risks, which may include theft or disclosure of assets, unauthorized access to sensitive information, or operational disruption; social media risk; losses incurred as a result of internal or external fraud; anti-money laundering; the accuracy and completeness of information provided to us concerning clients and counterparties; the failure of third parties to comply with their obligations to us and our affiliates or associates; intensifying competition from established competitors and new entrants in the financial services industry including through internet and mobile banking; technological change including the use of data and artificial intelligence in our business; global capital market activity; changes in monetary and economic policy; general business and economic conditions worldwide, as well as in Canada, the U.S. and other countries where we have operations, including increasing Canadian household debt levels and global credit risks; climate change and other ESG related risks including our ability to implement various sustainability-related initiatives internally and with our clients under expected time frames and our ability to scale our sustainable finance products and services; our success in developing and introducing new products and services, expanding existing distribution channels, developing new distribution channels and realizing increased revenue from these channels; changes in client spending and saving habits; our ability to attract and retain key employees and executives; our ability to successfully execute our strategies and complete and integrate acquisitions and joint ventures; the risk that expected benefits of an acquisition, merger or divestiture will not be realized within the expected time frame or at all; and our ability to anticipate and manage the risks associated with these factors. This list is not exhaustive of the factors that may affect any of our forward-looking statements. These and other factors should be considered carefully and readers should not place undue reliance on our forward-looking statements. Additional information about these factors can be found in the "Management of risk" section of our 2024 Annual Report, as updated by our quarterly reports. Any forward-looking statements contained in this news release represent the views of management only as of the date hereof and are presented for the purpose of assisting our shareholders and financial analysts in understanding our financial position, objectives and priorities and anticipated financial performance as at and for the periods ended on the dates presented, and may not be appropriate for other purposes. We do not undertake to update any forward-looking statement that is contained in this news release or in other communications except as required by law.
