Additional Disclosures

More Information about Interest and the Grace Period: When interest is charged on a new Purchase, it is charged from its Transaction date. We begin charging interest for Cash Advances on the day they are taken. We begin charging interest for Balance Transfers and CIBC Convenience Cheques on the day they are posted.

Payment Due Date Extension: If we do not receive a payment for your full Amount Due on a statement, we may make your payment due date later on the next statement. This will give you extra time to make your payment, but we will continue to charge you interest during this extended period. When you pay your full Amount Due, we will change your payment due date back to its regular date.
