Strategy overview

Invests primarily in equity securities from developed and emerging markets through a portfolio of ETFs. The fund selects companies based on value and profitability characteristics, using a broad set of company financial fundamentals such as book value, earnings, and cash flow, together with current market prices. Designed to provide diversified global equity exposure in a single investment option.

Why CAGE?

Designed for investors seeking a globally diversified equity allocation in a convenient, all-in-one solution.

Broaden your market exposure

Gain exposure to developed and emerging market equities through a single ETF, giving your portfolio access to a wide range of opportunities across global markets.

Access disciplined portfolio construction

Applies a disciplined, research-driven investment process that selects and weights companies based on attractive valuations and strong profitability, aiming to enhance long-term returns.

Simplify portfolio management

Manage your global equity allocation with a single investment, offering a straightforward way to keep your portfolio aligned with your goals.

What this adds to your portfolio

- Provides access to developed and emerging markets worldwide in one ETF.
- Offers a ready-made equity allocation for efficient portfolio construction.
- Maintains alignment with your goals through professional management.
