
1. Job Loss Insurance Claim

When should a Job Loss Insurance claim be made?

- If you have Job Loss Insurance under Creditor Insurance for CIBC Personal Loans, Creditor Insurance for CIBC Mortgages or CIBC Payment Protector™ Insurance for CIBC Credit Cards; and
- Your employment stops or is suspended as defined in your Certificate of Insurance; and
- You have completed the mandatory wait period following the date of your job loss as defined in your Certificate of Insurance and you did not return to work before the next regular payment following the wait period.

What information is required for a Job Loss Insurance claim?

- Your Record of Employment filed with Human Resources and Skills Development Canada; and
- Your proof of Employment Insurance or Strike Pay (Union Letter); and
- Your proof of unemployment benefits or copy of the Service Canada letter regarding severance package; or
- Your proof of business closure registration with the applicable federal or provincial authority, if you are self-employed; and
- the completion of this claim form.

How to find the account number?

- Sign on to CIBC Online or Mobile Banking and go to “My Accounts”; or
- View your account statements; or
- Contact your banking centre advisor.

Where to submit the claim forms?

- Email: Contact the Creditor Insurance Helpline at 1 800 465-6020 to set up secured email.
- Mail: CIBC Creditor Customer Service, 81 Bay Street, Toronto, ON M5J 0E7
- Digital for Credit Card only: Submit a digital claim at creditorselfserve.canadalife.com

Note: Any missing information may cause your claim to be delayed.

2. What happens after a claim is submitted?

- You are responsible for your Personal Loan, Mortgage Loan and Credit Card payments and insurance premiums until the claim is approved; any payment eligible after satisfying your applicable wait period will be reimbursed;
- You will be advised if further information is required to process your claim;
- On approval of your claim, The Canada Life Assurance Company (the Insurer) will make your benefit payments to CIBC as long as you continue to qualify for benefits. A notice will be sent to you indicating the payment(s) made on your behalf and the date to which payment(s) may continue;
- If your claim is denied, the Insurer will advise you in writing.

Do you need more information?

- Refer to your Certificate of Insurance for information about the terms, conditions, limitations, exclusions and other provisions of your coverage.
- Call the Creditor Insurance Helpline at 1 800 465-6020.

3. Your Privacy Matters - a note from the Insurer

- Creditor Insurance for CIBC Personal Loans, Creditor Insurance for CIBC Mortgages and CIBC Payment Protector™ Insurance for CIBC Credit Cards are underwritten by The Canada Life Assurance Company (“Canada Life”). All plans are administered by CIBC and Canada Life, and are subject to certain terms, conditions, limitations and exclusions, which are set out in the Certificates of Insurance, which are provided upon enrolment. You may contact Canada Life at www.canadalife.com or 1 800 387-4495.
- When you requested coverage for your Personal Loan, Mortgage Loan or Credit Card, you gave the insurer personal information about yourself, which the insurer added to a client file. The purpose of this file, which is strictly confidential, is to allow the insurer and their reinsurers to conduct all the necessary business of insurance, including, setting fair premiums, receiving payments, assessing and paying claims, and keeping you informed of the status of your coverage. The insurer keeps client files at their head office or at another location authorized by the insurer.
- Only authorized personnel have access to personal information about you. In some instances these persons may be located outside Canada, and your personal information may be subject to the laws of those foreign jurisdictions. If you want to know or correct any personal information in your claim file, just call the Creditor Helpline at 1 800 465-6020 and we will be happy to assist you.
- Protecting your personal information. At Canada Life (in this section “we” or “us”), we’re committed to protecting personal information and respecting your privacy. Personal information is information that either on its own or combined with other information allows an individual to be identified. This includes your name and address, as well as more sensitive information such as your health and financial records. When applicable, this includes information about other people such as your spouse, common-law partner, and children.

- How we use your personal information. Your personal information is used to provide you with products and services and to improve our business operations. This includes verifying your identity, maintaining your profile, and informing you about features of the products you already have with us. It's also used to provide you with advice, evaluate your eligibility for products, price our products, collect feedback on our customer service, process claims and other financial transactions, protect you and us from risks such as cyber threats and fraud, and comply with legal obligations.
- Who we share personal information with. We share your personal information with other people and organizations who help us administer your products and provide you with services. This may include our Canadian subsidiaries, and other organizations that provide us services such as paramedical examiners, medical laboratories, technology suppliers, other insurance or reinsurance companies, and your financial institution. As part of our day-to-day business, your personal information may be communicated to government departments and agencies, and may be communicated outside your province of residence or outside Canada. If there is a change of insurer your personal information will be disclosed to the subsequent insurer that provides the insurance. We take protecting your personal information seriously and we'll never sell your personal information to anyone.
- You're in control of your personal information. We respect your privacy preferences and follow them when using your personal information. At any point in your relationship with us, you can choose how your personal information is used by submitting a request through our privacy centre at canadalife.com/privacy. This includes how you want to receive information from Canada Life using the personal information we collect from you throughout your relationship with us. You can also exercise other privacy rights through our privacy centre such as access to or correction of your personal information.
- If you choose to remove your consent to the collection, use and disclosure of the personal information required to serve you and meet our legal obligations, we may not be able to continue to provide you with products and services.
