When your Creditor Insurance begins

Credit Limit of $150,000 or less

If your Credit Limit is $150,000 or less and you are eligible to apply, your Creditor Insurance begins on the later of:

- i) the day your PLC is approved by CIBC, and
- ii) the day CIBC receives your signed and completed Application for Creditor Insurance on your PLC.

You do not have to answer health questions when your Credit Limit is $150,000 or less.

If your Credit Limit is subsequently increased, your coverage will be automatically increased up to the lesser of your new Credit Limit or $150,000.

If your Credit Limit is increased above $150,000 and you wish to insure your PLC balance in excess of $150,000, you must complete a new application, in which you will be required to answer health questions. Your insurance coverage for the PLC balance in excess of $150,000 begins on the day Canada Life advises you in writing that it has approved such excess insurance coverage. If such excess insurance coverage is not approved, Canada Life will send you a notice of decline. The terms and conditions of your insurance coverage for the PLC balance of $150,000 or less will remain in force.

Credit Limit greater than $150,000

If your PLC has a Credit Limit greater than $150,000 and you are eligible to apply, your insurance coverage up to $150,000 of your PLC balance begins on the later of:

- i) the day your PLC is approved by CIBC, and
- ii) the day CIBC receives your signed and completed Application for Creditor Insurance on your PLC.

Your insurance coverage for the PLC balance in excess of $150,000 begins on the day that Canada Life informs you in writing that the excess insurance coverage has been approved. You will be required to answer health questions. If the insurance coverage is not approved, Canada Life will send you a notice of decline. The terms and conditions of your insurance coverage for the PLC balance of $150,000 or less will remain in force.

When your Creditor Insurance ends

Your Creditor Insurance ends automatically on the earliest of the following dates:

- your 70th birthday,

Certificate of Insurance Creditor Insurance for CIBC Personal Lines of Credit

- the date CIBC receives a letter requesting cancellation of your insurance coverage,
- the date you are no longer a borrower, a co-borrower or a guarantor (as applicable) of the PLC,
- the date of your death,
- the date the PLC is closed,
- the date CIBC makes a demand on or withdraws the PLC,
- the date your insurance premium payments are in arrears for 90 consecutive days, or
- the date CIBC and Canada Life terminate the PLC Insurance Policy.

If your insurance ends because your insurance premium payments are in arrears for 90 consecutive days, and you wish to reapply for coverage, you must complete a new Application.

Personal Line of Credit Life Insurance

This section only applies to you if you are enrolled in Life Insurance.

Description of the Life Insurance benefit:

Provided the terms and conditions of this Certificate are met, Canada Life will pay the amount of the Life Insurance benefit to CIBC which will be applied to your PLC.

The benefit paid may be based on an amount that is less than the amount owing on your PLC. The amount of the Life Insurance benefit is the lowest of:

- i) the end-of-day balance owing to CIBC on the PLC on the date of your death,
- ii) the Credit Limit of the PLC on the date of your death,
- iii) if Canada Life sent you a letter informing you about the Life Insurance coverage limit, the limit in effect on the date of your death,
- iv) the Capped Life Benefit Amount, and
- v) $300,000.

The Capped Life Benefit Amount only applies if your death is caused or contributed to by a condition or health problem and you received Medical Treatment for the condition or health problem after you first applied for Life Insurance coverage on the PLC and in the 12 months before your death.

The Capped Life Benefit Amount is the highest end of day balance of the PLC owing to CIBC in the 12 months preceding the date on which you first received Medical Treatment.

Your estate is responsible for payments on your PLC until the claim is approved. Any payments made after the date of death that are covered by this Creditor Insurance will be reimbursed once the claim is approved.

The maximum Life Insurance benefit payable for all your PLCs insured under the PLC Insurance Policy is $750,000.

What your Life Insurance coverage costs

Your Life Insurance premium is calculated and accumulated daily. If you have a balance on any day, there will be a premium payable for that day. Your premium is calculated by multiplying your PLC insured outstanding balance by the premium rate applicable to you in the table below. Your age on the first day of the month in which the premium is calculated is used to determine your premium rate.

The premium rate is multiplied by your PLC insured outstanding balance, which is the lowest of:

- i) end-of-day balance of the PLC,
- ii) the Credit Limit,
- iii) the Life Insurance coverage limit Canada Life communicated to you by letter (if applicable), and
- iv) $300,000.

The accumulated daily insurance premiums, plus any applicable taxes, are charged to the PLC on the PLC billing date.

Approximate* monthly premium rate per $1,000 of the end-of-day insured outstanding balance of the PLC owing to CIBC:

Age Group	18-30	31-35	36-40	41-45	46-50	51-55	56-60	61-64	65-69
One Person	$0.25	$0.25	$0.28	$0.40	$0.53	$0.69	$0.95	$1.45	$2.25
Two People	$0.41	$0.41	$0.46	$0.66	$0.87	$1.14	$1.57	$2.39	$3.71

Certificate of Insurance Creditor Insurance for CIBC Personal Lines of Credit

* The monthly premium will vary depending on the number of days in the month. The table is based on a year with 365 days spread over 12 equal months. The premium for the billing period is calculated by adding the daily premiums for every day in the billing period and then rounding off to the nearest penny.

Life Insurance premium rates are subject to change upon no less than 30 days prior notice.

If two people are insured on the PLC and both are approved for the same maximum insurance coverage, the Life Insurance premium rate is based on the age of the older person.

If two people are insured on the PLC and each person has been approved for a different insurance coverage amount, the Life Insurance premium rate is based on the age of the older person for the Life Insurance coverage amount that is common to both people. The Life Insurance premium for the additional insurance coverage amount is based on the age of the person insured for such additional coverage.

Sample Premium Calculation

One Person:

You are age 42. Your PLC balance is $50,000. Your Life Insurance premium for one day is calculated as follows: $\{$0.40 \text{ (rate based on age 42)} \times 12 \text{ months} / 365 \text{ days}\} \times \{$50,000 \text{ insured balance} / $1,000\} = $0.658$. If your balance remained at $50,000 for the entire 30 day billing period the monthly premium would be the $0.658 daily rate added for the 30 days or $19.74.

Two People:

You are age 42, the other borrower is 40. Your PLC balance is $50,000. Your Life Insurance premium for one day for both insured borrowers is calculated as follows: $\{$0.66 \text{ (joint rate based on age 42)} \times 12 \text{ months} / 365 \text{ days}\} \times \{$50,000 \text{ insured balance} / $1,000\} = $1.085$. If your balance remained at $50,000 for the entire 30 day billing period the monthly premium would be $1.085 daily rate added for the 30 days or $32.55.

Personal Line of Credit Disability Insurance

This section only applies to you if you are enrolled in Disability Insurance.

Definition of Disability/Disabled

The terms "Disability" and "Disabled" mean being completely unable, due to sickness, injury, mental illness or nervous disorder, to perform:

- a) the regular duties of your full-time occupation. To qualify you must be engaged in your full-time occupation, immediately prior to becoming disabled,
- b) the essential duties of your principal occupation if you are a Seasonal Worker, or
- c) the regular duties of your full-time occupation prior to retirement if you are retired.

Description of the Disability Insurance benefit

Provided you meet the definition of Disability and the other terms and conditions of this Certificate are met, Canada Life will pay the benefit amount to CIBC to be applied to the PLC for the duration of the claim period. The benefit is payable 60 days after the Date of Disability. The maximum monthly benefit amount is $6,000 for each disability-insured CIBC Personal Line of Credit for a maximum payment period of 24 months.

The benefit paid may be based on an amount that is less than the amount owing on your PLC. The monthly Disability Insurance benefit is 3% of the maximum benefit per claim. The maximum benefit per claim is the lowest of:

- i) the end-of-day balance owing to CIBC on the PLC on the date you first become Disabled,
- ii) the Credit Limit of the PLC on the date you first become Disabled,
- iii) if Canada Life sent you a letter informing you about the Disability Insurance coverage limit, the limit in effect on the date you first became Disabled,
- iv) the Capped Disability Benefit Amount, and
- v) $200,000.

The Capped Disability Benefit Amount only applies if you become Disabled from a condition or health problem and you received Medical Treatment for the condition or health problem after you first applied for Disability Insurance coverage on the PLC and in the 12 months before your Disability occurred.

The Capped Disability Benefit Amount is the highest end of day balance of the PLC owing to CIBC in the 12 months preceding the date on which you first received Medical Treatment.

Certificate of Insurance Creditor Insurance for CIBC Personal Lines of Credit

The Disability Insurance benefit will be pro-rated if a benefit is payable for a portion of the monthly PLC billing period.

You are responsible for the payments on the PLC until the claim is approved.

You may only make one Disability claim at a time, and no additional Disability claims may be made as a result of any cause that arises during the Disability Insurance claim period. All sicknesses, injuries, mental illnesses or nervous disorders that result in your Disability as of the date you first become Disabled, or during the Disability Insurance claim period, are considered to result in only one Disability Insurance claim under this Certificate. This means that while you are Disabled, and during the Disability Insurance claim period, no further claims will be accepted for Disability arising from related or unrelated causes.

In the event that two Insured Persons are disabled at the same time, and one is no longer eligible for benefits, the other Insured Person's benefit would remain payable. In this event, no new Waiting Period applies.

When your Disability Insurance benefits begin

If Canada Life approves your Disability Insurance claim, Canada Life will pay your benefit to CIBC to apply to your PLC 60 days or more following the Date of Disability.

Recurrence of Disability

If the same Disability recurs within 21 consecutive days of recovery or your return to work, and lasts a minimum of 7 consecutive days, your Disability will be treated as a continuation of your previous claim. No benefits will be payable for the period you worked. Your benefit payments will begin again after you have provided proof satisfactory to Canada Life of the recurrence of your Disability.

When your Disability Insurance benefits end

Your Disability Insurance benefit payments will end on the earliest of the following dates:

- the date of your 70th birthday,
- the date you have received your maximum approved disability benefit amount,
- the date your Disability ends, or you are able to return to work,
- the date 24 months of Disability Insurance benefit payments for a Disability have been paid,
- the date you do not provide satisfactory proof of continuing Disability to Canada Life,
- the date you refuse to submit to a medical examination by a Physician or other health practitioner selected by Canada Life,
- the date you are not under the regular care of a Physician approved by Canada Life,
- the date the PLC is closed, or
- the date of your death.

What your Disability Insurance coverage costs

Your Disability Insurance premium is calculated and accumulated daily. If you have a balance on any day, there will be a premium payable for that day. Your premium is calculated by multiplying your PLC insured outstanding balance by the premium rate applicable to you in the table below. Your age on the first day of the month in which the premium is calculated is used to determine your premium rate.

The premium rate is multiplied by your PLC insured outstanding balance, which is the lowest of:

- i) the end-of-day balance of the PLC,
- ii) the Credit Limit,
- iii) the Disability Insurance coverage limit Canada Life communicated to you by letter (if applicable), and
- iv) $200,000.

The accumulated daily insurance premiums, plus any applicable taxes, are charged to the PLC on the PLC billing date.

Approximate* monthly premium rate per $1000 of the end-of-day insured outstanding balance of the PLC owing to CIBC:

Age Group	18 - 40	41 - 55	56 - 69
One Person	$0.87	$1.19	$2.50
Two People	$1.52	$2.08	$4.38

Certificate of Insurance Creditor Insurance for CIBC Personal Lines of Credit

*The monthly premium will vary depending on the number of days in the month. The table is based on a 365 days spread over 12 equal months. The premium for the billing period is calculated by adding the daily premiums for every day in the billing period and then rounding off to the nearest penny.

If you have Life and Disability Insurance coverage, your Disability Insurance premiums will be reduced by 10%.

Disability Insurance premium rates are subject to change upon no less than 30 days prior notice.

If two persons are insured on the PLC and both are approved for the same maximum insurance coverage, the Disability Insurance premium rate is based on the age of the older person.

If two persons are insured on the PLC and each person has been approved for a different insurance coverage amount, the Disability Insurance premium rate is based on the age of the older person for the Disability Insurance coverage amount that is common to both people. The Disability Insurance premium for the additional coverage amount is based on the age of the person insured for such additional coverage.

Sample Premium Calculation

One Person:

You are age 42. Your PLC balance is $50,000; Your Disability Insurance premium for one day is calculated as follows: $\{$1.19 \text{ (rate based on age 42)} \times 12 \text{ months} / 365 \text{ days}\} \times \{$50,000 \text{ insured balance} / $1,000\} = $1.956$. If your balance remained at $50,000 for the entire 30 day billing period the monthly premium would be the $1.956 daily rate added for the 30 days or $58.68.

If you have Life Insurance and Disability Insurance coverage, the Disability Insurance premiums are reduced by 10%. In this example, the monthly Disability Insurance premiums will be reduced to $$58.68 \times (1-10/100) = \52.81 .

Two People:

You are age 42, the other borrower is 40. Your PLC balance is $50,000. Your Disability Insurance premium for one day for both insured borrowers is calculated as follows: $\{$2.08 \text{ (joint rate based on age 42)} \times 12 \text{ months} / 365 \text{ days}\} \times \{$50,000 / $1,000\} = 3.419$. If your balance remained at $50,000 for the entire 30 day billing period the monthly premium would be the $3.419 daily rate added for the 30 days or $102.58

If you have Life Insurance and Disability Insurance coverage, the Disability Insurance premiums are reduced by 10%. In this example, the monthly Disability Insurance premiums will be reduced to $$102.58 \times (1-10/100) = \92.32 .

When your Life Insurance benefit or Disability Insurance benefit will not be paid

A Life Insurance benefit or Disability Insurance benefit will not be paid if:

- you gave false or incomplete information or a false declaration on the Application or to any subsequent request for information, and Canada Life determines based on the correct or complete information that you would not have qualified for this insurance. In this case, your Creditor insurance coverage will be void and will be considered never to have been in force,
- your death or Disability results directly or indirectly from, or is caused or contributed to by, or associated with:
 - i) your operation of any motorized vehicle or watercraft while your blood alcohol concentration is higher than the legal limit, or
 - ii) your commission or attempted commission of a criminal offence,
- the insurance is not in force on the date of death or Date of Disability,
- you did not meet the requirements in the section entitled "Who can apply" when you applied,
- you have misstated your age on your Application, and your true age would have made you ineligible for the insurance. In this case, Canada Life's liability will be limited to a refund of premiums paid, or
- the insurance coverage approved by Canada Life is $150,000 or less and you die or become Disabled within 12 months after the date you first apply for insurance coverage on the PLC from a condition or health problem for which you received Medical Treatment in the 12 months immediately preceding the date you first applied for insurance coverage on the PLC (this is the "pre-existing condition exclusion" provision).

In addition:

A Life Insurance benefit will not be paid if:

- your death results from self-inflicted injury, whether sane or insane within 2 years from the date your insurance begins, or

Certificate of Insurance Creditor Insurance for CIBC Personal Lines of Credit

- you do not provide satisfactory proof of your Disability to Canada Life,
- you do not stop working due to your Disability,
- you are not under the regular care of a Physician or other health practitioner approved by Canada Life,
- you refuse to submit to a medical examination by a Physician at the request of Canada Life,
- your claim is as the result of a pregnancy, unless the pregnancy is defined as high-risk by your attending Physician, and a medical condition resulting from the pregnancy caused your Disability,
- your Disability results from self-inflicted injury, whether you are sane or insane,
- your Disability results from or is associated with your use of any drug, poisonous substance, intoxicant (other than alcohol) or narcotic unless taken according to instructions of your Physician, or unless you are participating in a rehabilitation program approved by Canada Life that starts during your Disability Insurance claim Waiting Period,
