Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Investment Objective and Strategies

Investment Objective: CIBC U.S. Equity Fund (the Fund) seeks to provide long-term capital growth by investing in a diversified portfolio consisting primarily of equity securities of companies domiciled primarily in the United States.

Investment Strategies: The Fund invests primarily in companies in which the stock price movements follow growth in earnings and revenues, rather than on broad economic forecasts.

Risk

The Fund is a U.S. equity fund that is suitable for long-term investors who can tolerate medium investment risk.

For the period ended December 31, 2016, the Fund's overall level of risk remains as discussed in the simplified prospectus.

Results of Operations

The portfolio sub-advisor of the Fund is American Century Investment Management, Inc. (the sub-advisor). The commentary that follows provides a summary of the results of operations for the period ended December 31, 2016. All dollar figures are expressed in thousands, unless otherwise indicated.

The Fund's net asset value increased by 4% during the period, from $488,273 as at December 31, 2015 to $506,021 as at December 31, 2016. Net sales of $12,492 were partially offset by negative investment performance, resulting in an overall increase in net asset value.

Class A units of the Fund posted a return of -0.9% for the period. The Fund's benchmarks are the S&P 500 Index and the Russell 3000 Growth Index (the benchmarks), which returned 8.1% and 3.7%, respectively, for the same period. The Fund's return is after the deduction of fees and expenses, unlike the benchmarks. See Past Performance for the returns of other classes of units offered by the Fund.

In June, the U.K.'s vote to leave the European Union led to a brief decline in U.S. and global equity markets. Although equity markets subsequently rebounded, some uncertainty remained.

The unexpected U.S. presidential election results led to a major market rotation in the U.S. equity market, as investors sought dividend-oriented stocks, as well as stocks more likely to benefit from the new U.S. administration's policy initiatives.

Value-oriented stocks, particularly those generating high dividends, outperformed growth-oriented stocks by a wide margin across all market capitalizations.

The Fund's focus on higher growth and price-to-earnings factors, combined with its lower dividend yield, significantly detracted from performance as value-oriented stocks outperformed. Stock selection, especially within the health care and information technology sectors, also detracted significantly. U.S. health care stocks faced pressure from ongoing discussions concerning prescription drug prices, and from post-election concerns about the future of the Affordable Care Act.

Significant individual detractors included health care companies Allergan PLC, Alexion Pharmaceuticals Inc. and Vertex Pharmaceuticals Inc. Allergan's share price fell after its deal with Pfizer failed following the U.S. Treasury Department's ruling against tax-inversion deals. Alexion struggled with foreign exchange rates, as two-thirds of its business is outside the U.S. The launch of Vertex's cystic fibrosis drug underperformed relative to high expectations.

Stock selection in the industrials sector, and a significant overweight exposure to road and rail firms, modestly contributed to performance.

Individual contributors to performance included Teleflex Inc., Applied Materials Inc. and Burlington Stores Inc. Teleflex makes medical devices used in critical care and surgical applications. The company reported results that exceeded expectations and has moved to phase two of a restructuring in its manufacturing processes, which should be positive for the company's long-term performance.

Semiconductor equipment provider Applied Materials reported strong results and earnings guidance as orders exceeded expectations. The company, which supplies makers of smartphones and other products, benefited from a number of trends, including the introduction of organic light-emitting diodes, which allow thinner, flexible screens, and higher-end memory for smartphones.

Off-price retailer Burlington Stores reported positive results and offered better-than-expected guidance for same-store sales, driven by strong traffic and sales across multiple categories. The company's margins improved and its earnings per share were well above expectations.

The sub-advisor added Microsoft Corp. to the Fund after the company reported improvement in its server and tools division. Microsoft's revenue exceeded expectations, partly as a result of a continued increase in cloud-computing revenues. The sub-advisor also added biopharmaceuticals firm Shire PLC to the Fund. The U.S. Food and Drug Administration approved the company's drug for dry-eye disease, Xiidra, for which the sub-advisor expects strong interest. The company also benefited from its acquisition of Baxalta.

The new holding in Shire was funded by the elimination of the Fund's holding in Allergan. The company competes with Shire in the dry-eye business, and the sub-advisor believes Shire has more potential. The sub-advisor also trimmed the Fund's holding in video-game maker Electronic Arts Inc. as a result of its increased valuation.

Recent Developments

Effective April 27, 2016, the composition of the Independent Review Committee (IRC) changed. John Crow resigned his position as member and Chair. Marcia Lewis Brown was appointed as member and Don Hunter was appointed as Chair.

Related Party Transactions

Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce (CIBC) and its affiliates have the following roles and responsibilities with respect to the Fund, and receive the fees described below in connection with their roles and responsibilities.

Manager

CIBC is the Manager of the Fund. CIBC receives management fees with respect to the day-to-day business and operations of the Fund, calculated based on the net asset value of each respective class of units of the Fund as described in the section entitled Management Fees. The Manager also compensates its wholesalers in connection with their marketing activities regarding the Fund. From time to time, CIBC may provide seed capital to the Fund.

Trustee

CIBC Trust Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of CIBC, is the trustee (the Trustee) of the Fund. The Trustee holds title to the property (cash and securities) of the Fund on behalf of its unitholders.

Portfolio Advisor

The portfolio advisor provides, or arranges to provide, investment advice and portfolio management services to the Fund. CAMI, a wholly-owned subsidiary of CIBC, is the portfolio advisor (the Portfolio Advisor) of the Fund.

Portfolio Sub-Advisor

CAMI has retained ACI to provide investment advice and portfolio management services to the Fund. A portion of the portfolio advisory fees CAMI receives from the Manager will be paid to ACI. Although not an affiliate, up until May 19, 2016, CIBC owned a 41% equity interest in ACI. On May 19, 2016, CIBC completed the sale of its minority position in ACI.

Distributor

Dealers and other firms sell the units of the Fund to investors. These dealers and other firms include CIBC's related dealers such as the principal distributor, CIBC Securities Inc. (CIBC SI), the CIBC Investor's Edge discount brokerage division of CIBC Investor Services Inc. (CIBC ISI), the CIBC Imperial Service division of CIBC ISI, and the CIBC Wood Gundy division of CIBC World Markets Inc. (CIBC WM). CIBC SI, CIBC ISI, and CIBC WM are wholly-owned subsidiaries of CIBC.

CIBC may pay trailing commissions to these dealers and firms in connection with the sale of units of the Fund. These dealers and other firms may pay a portion of these trailing commissions to their advisors who sell units of the Fund to investors.

Brokerage Arrangements and Soft Dollars

The Portfolio Advisor and any portfolio sub-advisors make decisions, including the selection of markets and dealers and the negotiation of commissions, with respect to the purchase and sale of portfolio securities, certain derivative products and the execution of portfolio transactions. Brokerage business may be allocated by the Portfolio Advisor and any portfolio sub-advisors, to CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp., each a subsidiary of CIBC. CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp. may also earn spreads on the sale of fixed income and other securities and certain derivative products to the Fund. A spread is the difference between the bid and ask prices for a security in the applicable marketplace, with respect to the execution of portfolio transactions. The spread will differ based upon various factors such as the type and liquidity of the security.

Dealers, including CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp., may furnish goods and services, other than order execution, to the Portfolio Advisor and any portfolio sub-advisors, in partial exchange for processing trades through them (referred to in the industry as "soft dollar" arrangements). These goods and services are paid for with a portion of the brokerage commissions and assist the Portfolio Advisor and any portfolio sub-advisors, with investment decision-making services for the Fund or relate directly to the execution of portfolio transactions on behalf of the Fund. As per the terms of the portfolio sub-advisory agreements, such soft dollar arrangements are in compliance with applicable laws.

In addition, the Manager may enter into commission recapture arrangements with certain dealers with respect to the Fund. Any commission recaptured will be paid to the Fund.

During the period, the Fund did not pay any brokerage commissions or other fees to CIBC WM or CIBC World Markets Corp. Spreads associated with fixed income and other securities are not ascertainable and, for that reason, cannot be included when determining these amounts.

Fund Transactions

The Fund may enter into one or more of the following transactions (the Related Party Transactions) in reliance on the standing instructions issued by the IRC:

- invest in or hold equity securities of CIBC or issuers related to a portfolio sub-advisor;
- invest in or hold non-exchange-traded debt securities of CIBC or an issuer related to CIBC in a primary offering and in the secondary market;
- make an investment in the securities of an issuer for which CIBC WM, CIBC World Markets Corp., or any affiliate of CIBC (a Related Dealer) acts as an underwriter during the offering of the securities at any time during the 60-day period following the completion of the offering of such securities (in the case of a "private placement" offering, in accordance with the exemptive relief order granted by the Canadian securities regulatory authorities and in accordance with the policies and procedures relating to such investment);
- purchase equity or debt securities from or sell them to a Related Dealer, where it is acting as principal;
- undertake currency and currency derivative transactions where a Related Dealer is the counterparty; and
- purchase securities from or sell securities to another investment fund or a managed account managed by the Manager or an affiliate of the Manager.

At least annually, the IRC reviews the Related Party Transactions for which they have issued standing instructions. The IRC is required to advise the Canadian securities regulatory authorities, after a matter has been referred or reported to the IRC by the Manager, if it determines that an investment decision was not made in accordance with conditions of its approval.

Custodian

CIBC Mellon Trust Company is the custodian of the Fund (the Custodian). The Custodian holds all cash and securities for the Fund and ensures that those assets are kept separate from any other cash or securities that the Custodian might be holding. The Custodian also provides other services to the Fund including record-keeping and processing of foreign exchange transactions. The fees and spreads for the services of the Custodian directly related to the execution of portfolio transactions initiated by CAMI as the Portfolio Advisor are paid by CAMI and/or the dealer(s) directed by CAMI, up to the amount of the credits generated under soft dollar arrangements from trading by CAMI on behalf of the Fund during that month. All other fees and spreads for the services of the Custodian are paid by the Manager and charged to the Fund on a recoverable basis. CIBC owns a 50% interest in the Custodian.

Service Provider

CIBC Mellon Global Securities Services Company (CIBC GSS) provides certain services to the Fund, including securities lending, fund accounting and reporting, and portfolio valuation. Such servicing fees are paid by the Manager and charged to the Fund on a recoverable basis. CIBC indirectly owns a 50% interest in CIBC GSS.

¹ This information is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements. The Fund adopted International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) on January 1, 2014. Previously, the Fund prepared its financial statements in accordance with Canadian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) as defined in Part V of the CPA Canada Handbook. Under Canadian GAAP, the Fund measured fair values of its investments in accordance with CICA Handbook Section 3855 which required the use of bid prices for long positions and ask prices for short positions. As such, the net assets per unit figure presented in the financial statements may differ from the net asset value calculated for fund pricing purposes. An explanation of these differences can be found in the notes to the financial statements issued prior to January 1, 2014. Upon adoption of IFRS, the Fund measures the fair value of its investments by using the close market prices, where the close market price falls within the bid-ask spread. As such, the Fund's accounting policies for measuring the fair value of investments in the financial statements are consistent with those used in measuring the net asset value for transactions with unitholders. Accordingly, the opening net asset figure as at January 1, 2013 was restated to reflect accounting policy adjustments made in accordance with IFRS. All figures presented for periods prior to January 1, 2013 were prepared in accordance with Canadian GAAP and subsequent thereto were prepared in accordance with IFRS.

³ Distributions were paid in cash, reinvested in additional units of the Fund, or both.

⁶ The decision to waive and/or absorb management fees and operating expenses is at the discretion of the Manager. The practice of waiving and/or absorbing management fees and operating expenses may continue indefinitely or may be terminated at any time without notice to unitholders.

⁷ The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs before income taxes expressed as an annualized percentage of the daily average net asset value during the period. Spreads associated with fixed income securities trading are not ascertainable and, for that reason, are not included in the trading expense ratio calculation.

⁸ The portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the portfolio advisor and/or portfolio sub-advisor manages the portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to a fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by a fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund.

Management Fees

The Fund, either directly or indirectly, pays an annual management fee to CIBC to cover the costs of managing the Fund. Management fees are based on the net asset value of the Fund and are calculated daily and paid monthly. Management fees are paid to CIBC in consideration for providing, or arranging for the provision of, management, distribution, and portfolio advisory services. Advertising and promotional expenses, office overhead expenses, trailing commissions, and the fees of the portfolio sub-advisor(s) are paid by CIBC out of the management fees received from the Fund. The Fund is required to pay applicable taxes on the management fees paid to CIBC. Refer to the Simplified Prospectus for the maximum annual management fee rate for each class of units. For Class O units, the management fee is negotiated with and paid by, or as directed by, unitholders or dealers and discretionary managers on behalf of unitholders. Such Class O management fee will not exceed the Class A unit management fee rate.

The following table shows a breakdown of the services received in consideration of the management fees, as a percentage of the management fees collected from the Fund for the period ended December 31, 2016. These amounts do not include waived fees or absorbed expenses.

	Class A Units
Sales and trailing commissions paid to dealers	35.17%
General administration, investment advice, and profit	64.83%

Past Performance

The performance data provided assumes reinvestment of distributions only and does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution, or other optional charges payable by any unitholder that would have reduced returns. Past performance does not necessarily indicate how a fund will perform in the future.

The Fund's returns are after the deduction of fees and expenses, and the difference in returns between classes of units is primarily due to differences in the management expense ratio. See the section entitled Financial Highlights for the management expense ratio.

Year-by-Year Returns

These bar charts show the annual performance of each class of units of the Fund for each of the periods shown, and illustrate how the performance has changed from period to period. These bar charts show, in percentage terms, how an investment made on January 1 would have increased or decreased by December 31, unless otherwise indicated.
