Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Investment Objective and Strategies

Investment Objective: CIBC Financial Companies Fund (referred to as the Fund) seeks to provide long-term growth through capital appreciation by investing primarily in companies involved in the Canadian financial services industry.

Investment Strategies: The Fund identifies stocks and sub-sectors of the financial services industry, real estate investment trust units and real estate stocks that are expected to outperform over upcoming periods. Adjustments to the portfolio are based on a review of macroeconomic trends and themes and research that identifies stocks that exhibit strong earnings growth potential that trade at reasonable value in the market.

Risk

The Fund is a financial services equity fund that is suitable for long-term investors who can tolerate medium to high investment risk.

For the period ended December 31, 2020, the Fund's overall level of risk remained as discussed in the simplified prospectus.

Results of Operations

The Fund's portfolio advisor is CIBC Asset Management Inc. (referred to as CAMI or the Portfolio Advisor). The commentary that follows provides a summary of the results of operations for the period ended December 31, 2020. All dollar figures are expressed in thousands, unless otherwise indicated.

The Fund's net asset value decreased by 10% during the period, from $152,988 as at December 31, 2019 to $137,055 as at December 31, 2020. Net redemptions of $9,095 and negative investment performance resulted in an overall decrease in net asset value.

Class A units of the Fund posted a return of -4.3% for the period. The Fund's primary benchmark, the S&P/TSX Composite Index (referred to as the benchmark), returned 5.6% for the same period. The Fund's return is after the deduction of fees and expenses, unlike the benchmark's return. See the section Past Performance for the returns of other classes of units offered by the Fund.

Canada's economy entered a recession in the second quarter of 2020, as lockdowns in response to the COVID-19 pandemic began to significantly hinder economic activity in late March. Canada's gross domestic product (referred to as GDP) fell at a record pace in the second quarter. In the third quarter as the economy reopened and lockdown restrictions eased, Canada's economy expanded at its fastest pace ever. However, Canadian GDP contracted again in October, as COVID-19 infection rates continued to climb and new lockdown restrictions were imposed.

In response to the substantial weakening of economic conditions, the Bank of Canada (referred to as the BoC) reduced its central interest rate three times in March, by 50 basis points (referred to as bps) each time. This reduced the BoC's benchmark overnight interest rate to 0.25%. The BoC expects to maintain this low interest rate until its inflation target is achieved, which the BoC expects to take a few years. The BoC also implemented a bond-buying program to help the economy and ensure the proper functioning of financial markets.

Similarly, the U.S. Federal Reserve Board (referred to as the Fed) reduced its central interest rate by 50 bps and 100 bps at two meetings in March, as lockdowns in response to the COVID-19 pandemic brought U.S. economic activity to a near standstill. This lowered the target range of the federal funds rate to 0.00%–0.25%. The Fed noted it expects to hold this key interest rate steady until inflation moves higher and better economic conditions are achieved, which the Fed believes could be in 2023 or later.

After substantial declines in March, Canadian equity markets rebounded and ended the period up slightly, while U.S. equity markets ended the period up substantially. The approval and distribution of several vaccines late in the period boosted economic activity. With hopes of an end to the pandemic and an economic recovery, investors moved back into cyclical sectors, which had experienced a steep sell-off earlier in 2020.

The Fund's significant overweight allocation to the real estate sector detracted from performance. Individual detractors from performance included a moderate overweight position in Wells Fargo & Co. and a significant overweight position in Brookfield Asset Management Inc., as well as a significant underweight holding in Bank of Montreal. Wells Fargo shares weakened as credit losses spiked, lower interest rates put pressure on its revenue and it delayed expense initiatives. Brookfield Asset Management faced concern over its real estate subsidiary, Brookfield Property Partners L.P. Bank of Montreal outperformed in the second half of the period as credit fears dissipated.

Stock selection in the financial technology industry contributed to the Fund's performance. Individual contributors to performance included a significant overweight holding in Moody's Corp., a moderate overweight position in Nuvei Corp. and a significant underweight holding in Citigroup Inc. Lower interest rates led to record debt issuance, which bolstered Moody's share price. The Fund participated in the initial public offering of successful payment technology company Nuvei. Citigroup's credit losses spiked during the period, which weighed on the company's share price.

Several new holdings were added to the Fund during the period. Truist Financial Corp. and Regions Financial Corp. were added in October to increase the Fund's exposure to U.S. banks and in response to the Portfolio Advisor's belief that both firms should benefit from strong credit performance. Real Matters Inc. sold off in December following its quarterly results, but the Portfolio Advisor believes the U.S. housing market is fundamentally strong. The Portfolio Advisor believes the valuation of Svenska Handelsbanken AB could improve as it rationalizes its branches and expenses.

The Portfolio Advisor added to the Fund's existing holdings in Canadian banks Bank of Montreal, Bank of Nova Scotia and Royal Bank of Canada in September after credit peaked. The Fund's holdings in U.S. banks JPMorgan Chase & Co. and Citigroup were increased in late October for the same reason.

Several holdings were eliminated from the Fund during the period. Great-West Lifeco Inc. was sold in favour of increased exposure to its parent company, Power Corp. of Canada, which the Portfolio Advisor believes has more opportunities for value creation. Genworth MI Canada Inc. was sold after majority shareholder Brookfield Business Partners L.P. announced it was purchasing all the remaining shares. The Westaim Corp. was sold to fund the purchase of Real Matters.

The Portfolio Advisor trimmed the Fund's holdings in W R Berkley Corp. and Moody's following a period of strong performance.

Recent Developments

On July 6, 2020, Class F units of the Fund were made available for purchase.

The composition of the Independent Review Committee (referred to as IRC) changed. Don Hunter and Merle Kriss retired effective April 26, 2020. Effective April 27, 2020, David Forster and Deborah Leckman were appointed as members of the IRC. Marcia Lewis Brown was appointed Chair effective April 1, 2020.

The international spread of COVID-19 caused a significant slowdown in the global economy and volatility in financial markets. The COVID-19 outbreak may adversely affect global markets and the Fund's performance.

Related Party Transactions

Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce (referred to as CIBC) and its affiliates have the following roles and responsibilities with respect to the Fund, and receive the fees described below in connection with their roles and responsibilities.

Manager

CIBC is the Fund's manager (referred to as the Manager). CIBC receives management fees with respect to the Fund's day-to-day business and operations, calculated based on the net asset value of each respective class of units of the Fund as described in the section entitled Management Fees. The Manager compensates its wholesalers in connection with their marketing activities regarding the Fund. From time to time, CIBC may invest in units of the Fund.

Trustee

CIBC Trust Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of CIBC, is the Fund's trustee (referred to as the Trustee). The Trustee holds title to the Fund's property (cash and securities) on behalf of its unitholders.

Portfolio Advisor

The portfolio advisor provides, or arranges to provide, investment advice and portfolio management services to the Fund. CAMI, a wholly-owned subsidiary of CIBC, is the Fund's portfolio advisor.

Distributor

Dealers and other firms sell the units of the Fund to investors. These dealers and other firms include CIBC's related dealers such as the principal distributor, CIBC Securities Inc. (referred to as CIBC SI), the CIBC Investor's Edge discount brokerage division of CIBC Investor Services Inc. (referred to as CIBC ISI), the CIBC Imperial Investor Service division of CIBC ISI, and the CIBC Wood Gundy division of CIBC World Markets Inc. (referred to as CIBC WM). CIBC SI, CIBC ISI, and CIBC WM are wholly-owned subsidiaries of CIBC.

CIBC may pay trailing commissions to these dealers and firms, except for CIBC SI, in connection with the sale of units of the Fund. These dealers and other firms may pay a portion of these trailing commissions to their advisors who sell units of the Fund to investors. CIBC does not pay trailing commissions to CIBC SI for selling units of the Fund, although overall sales of CIBC funds may be considered in assessing the performance of their advisors and may therefore contribute to their annual compensation.

Brokerage Arrangements and Soft Dollars

The Portfolio Advisor makes decisions, including the selection of markets and dealers and the negotiation of commissions, with respect to the purchase and sale of portfolio securities, certain derivative products and the execution of portfolio transactions. Brokerage business may be allocated by the Portfolio Advisor to CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp., each a subsidiary of CIBC. CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp. may also earn spreads on the sale of fixed income securities and other securities and certain derivative products to the Fund. A spread is the difference between the bid and ask prices for a security in the applicable marketplace, with respect to the execution of portfolio transactions. The spread will differ based upon various factors such as the type and liquidity of the security.

Dealers, including CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp., may furnish goods and services, other than order execution, to the Portfolio Advisor in partial exchange for processing trades through them (referred to in the industry as “soft dollar” arrangements). These goods and services are paid for with a portion of the brokerage commissions and assist the Portfolio Advisor with investment decision-making services for the Fund or relate directly to the execution of portfolio transactions on behalf of the Fund.

In addition, CIBC may enter into commission recapture arrangements with certain dealers with respect to the Fund. Any commission recaptured will be paid to the Fund.

During the period, the Fund paid brokerage commissions and other fees of $3,745 to CIBC WM; the Fund did not pay any brokerage commissions or other fees to CIBC World Markets Corp. Spreads associated with fixed income and other securities are not ascertainable and, for that reason, cannot be included when determining these amounts.

Fund Transactions

The Fund may enter into one or more of the following transactions (referred to as the Related Party Transactions) in reliance on the standing instructions issued by the IRC:

- invest in or hold equity securities of CIBC or issuers related to a portfolio sub-advisor;
- invest in or hold non-exchange-traded debt securities of CIBC or an issuer related to CIBC, with terms-to-maturity of 365 days or more, issued in a primary offering and in the secondary market;
- make an investment in the securities of an issuer for which CIBC WM, CIBC World Markets Corp., or any affiliate of CIBC (referred to as a Related Dealer) acts as an underwriter during the offering of the securities or at any time during the 60-day period following the completion of the offering of such securities (in the case of a “private placement” offering, in accordance with the exemptive relief order granted by the Canadian securities regulatory authorities and in accordance with the policies and procedures relating to such investment);
- purchase equity or debt securities from or sell them to a Related Dealer, where it is acting as principal;
- undertake currency and currency derivative transactions where a Related Dealer is the counterparty;
- purchase securities from or sell securities to another investment fund or a managed account managed by the Manager or an affiliate; and
- engage in in-specie transfers by receiving portfolio securities from, or delivering portfolio securities to, a managed account or another investment fund managed by the Manager or an affiliate, in respect of a purchase or redemption on units in the fund, subject to certain conditions.

At least annually, the IRC reviews the Related Party Transactions for which they have issued standing instructions. The IRC is required to advise the Canadian securities regulatory authorities, after a matter has been referred or reported to the IRC by the Manager, if it determines that an investment decision was not made in accordance with a condition imposed by securities legislation or the IRC in any Related Party Transactions requiring its approval.

Custodian

CIBC Mellon Trust Company is the Fund's custodian (referred to as the Custodian). The Custodian holds all cash and securities for the Fund and ensures that those assets are kept separate from any other cash or securities that the Custodian might be holding. The Custodian also provides other services to the Fund including record-keeping and processing of foreign exchange transactions. The Custodian may hire sub-custodians for the Fund. The fees and spreads for services of the Custodian directly related to the execution of portfolio transactions by the Fund are paid by CAMI and/or dealer(s) directed by CAMI, up to the amount of the credits generated under soft dollar arrangements from trading on behalf of the Fund during that month. All other fees and spreads for the services of the Custodian are paid by the Manager and charged to the Fund on a recoverable basis. CIBC owns a 50% interest in the Custodian.

Service Provider

CIBC Mellon Global Securities Services Company (referred to as CIBC GSS) provides certain services to the Fund, including securities lending, fund accounting and reporting, and portfolio valuation. Such servicing fees are paid by the Manager, and charged to the Fund on a recoverable basis. CIBC indirectly owns a 50% interest in CIBC GSS.

⁴ This information is presented as at December 31 of the periods shown.

⁶ The decision to waive and/or absorb management fees and operating expenses is at the discretion of the Manager. The practice of waiving and/or absorbing management fees and operating expenses may continue indefinitely or may be terminated at any time without notice to unitholders.

⁷ The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs before income taxes expressed as an annualized percentage of the daily average net asset value during the period. Spreads associated with fixed income securities trading are not ascertainable and, for that reason, are not included in the trading expense ratio calculation.

⁸ The portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the portfolio advisor and/or portfolio sub-advisor manages the portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to a fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by a fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund.

Management Fees

The Fund, either directly or indirectly, pays CIBC an annual management fee to cover the costs of managing the Fund. Management fees are based on the Fund's net asset value and are calculated daily and paid monthly. Management fees are paid to CIBC in consideration for providing, or arranging for the provision of, management, distribution, and portfolio advisory services. Advertising and promotional expenses, office overhead expenses and trailing commissions are paid by CIBC out of the management fees received from the Fund. The Fund is required to pay applicable taxes on the management fees paid to CIBC. Refer to the Simplified Prospectus for the annual management fee rate.

The following table shows a breakdown of the services received in consideration of the management fees, as a percentage of the management fees collected from the Fund for the period ended December 31, 2020. These amounts do not include waived fees or absorbed expenses.

Past Performance

The performance data provided assumes reinvestment of distributions only and does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution, or other optional charges payable by any unitholder that would have reduced returns. Past performance does not necessarily indicate how a fund will perform in the future.

The Fund's returns are after the deduction of fees and expenses, and the difference in returns between classes of units is primarily due to differences in the management expense ratio. See Financial Highlights section for the management expense ratio.

Year-by-Year Returns

The bar chart shows the Fund's annual performance for each of the periods shown, and illustrates how the performance has changed from period to period. The bar chart shows, in percentage terms, how an investment made on January 1 would have increased or decreased by December 31, unless otherwise indicated.

Annual Compound Returns

This table shows the annual compound return of each class of units of the Fund for each indicated period ended on December 31, 2020. The annual compound total return is also compared to the Fund's benchmarks.

The Fund's primary benchmark is the S&P/TSX Composite Index.

The Fund's blended benchmark (referred to as Blended Benchmark) is comprised of the following:

- 55% S&P/TSX Composite Financials Sector Index
- 45% S&P 500 Financials Index (Hedged to USD)

	1 Year	3 Years	5 Years	10 Years*	or	Since Inception*	Inception Date

Blended Benchmark						24.2%

* If a class of units has been outstanding for less than 10 years, the annual compound return since inception is shown.

S&P 500 Financials Index (Hedged to USD) is hedged against the U.S. dollar currency.

S&P/TSX Composite Index is intended to represent the Canadian equity market and includes the largest companies listed on the TSX.

S&P/TSX Composite Financials Sector Index is intended to represent the Canadian financial services sector and primarily includes banks and insurance companies that are listed on the TSX.

A note on forward-looking statements

The management report of fund performance may contain forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements include statements that are predictive in nature, that depend upon or refer to future events or conditions, or that include words such as “expects”, “anticipates”, “intends”, “plans”, “believes”, “estimates”, or other similar wording. In addition, any statements that may be made concerning future performance, strategies, or prospects and possible future actions taken by the fund, are also forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. These statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors that may cause the actual results and achievements of the fund to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such statements. Such factors include, but are not limited to: general economic, market, and business conditions; fluctuations in securities prices, interest rates, and foreign currency exchange rates; changes in government regulations; and catastrophic events.

The above list of important factors that may affect future results is not exhaustive. Before making any investment decisions, we encourage you to consider these and other factors carefully. CIBC does not undertake, and specifically disclaims, any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future developments, or otherwise prior to the release of the next management report of fund performance.
