

Business Products and Services

At CIBC, we offer Businesses a choice of business accounts

1. CIBC Advanced Business Operating Account™
2. CIBC Unlimited Business Operating Account®
3. CIBC Everyday Business Operating Account™
4. CIBC Basic Business Operating Account®
5. CIBC Not-for-Profit Operating Account
6. CIBC Business Investment Growth Account™
7. CIBC U.S. Dollar Current Account

A CIBC Business Operating Account is a Canadian dollar account designed to meet the day-to-day banking needs of businesses. CIBC business clients will enjoy the flexibility of banking with full access to their account through CIBC bank machines, CIBC Telephone, Online or Branch Banking, Interac® Direct Payment or by wallet depository facility.

- CIBC Advanced Business Operating Account™ offers superior value for businesses that maintain a consistent account balance and perform a high volume of transactions. This account features no monthly account fee when a minimum daily balance is maintained, a comprehensive transaction package including Interac e-Transfers, withdrawals and deposits, plus a cash, coin and cheque deposit package to support your growing business.
- CIBC Unlimited Business Operating Account™ offers businesses with a high number of monthly transactions the ability to simplify banking and enhance cash flow for one low monthly fee. With unlimited transactions such as withdrawals, deposit transactions, transfers and bill payments and a cash, coin and cheque deposit package¹, this account offers a consistent monthly fee even when your banking activity increases.
- CIBC Everyday Business Operating Account offers businesses with a consistent number of monthly transactions. With everyday banking benefits such as 30 transactions each month, a cash, coin and cheque deposit package¹, and the flexibility to reduce fees when you use only electronic channels to perform transactions in a month, this account not only helps you manage your cash flow, but also your bottom line.
- CIBC Basic Business Operating Account offers businesses with a low number of monthly transactions the flexibility to minimize monthly banking fees by paying only for what is used. This account provides the ability to perform all of your day-to-day banking, anytime and anywhere at CIBC for a low monthly account fee.
- CIBC Not-for-Profit Operating Account offers a cost-effective solution to meet the needs of local not-for-profit or community based organizations. This account includes a low monthly account fee and 10 transactions so you can put your organization's money to its best use.

A CIBC Business Investment Growth Account (BIGA) offers the opportunity to earn a competitive rate of return on surplus funds while maintaining full liquidity. It is the perfect complement to your business operating account and provides you with easy access to your funds when you need them.

A U.S. Dollar Current Account is an operating account that is designed for businesses that have U.S. Dollar banking transactions. It allows your business to save on foreign exchange charges, as your transactions are conducted in U.S. funds.

Business Overdraft

Would you like the security of knowing that you have funds available to cover items such as supplier cheques, (up to your qualified overdraft limit)? With a business account, you can apply for a Business Overdraft of up to $10,000, which can provide you with quick access to cash for a minimal monthly charge.

Business Cheques

With your business account, you will receive an initial supply of cheques. Additional cheques can be ordered through your CIBC Representative.

Business Credit Card

A CIBC business credit card works to simplify and manage your daily company expenses. Ask your CIBC Representative for more details.

Selecting the right account for your business needs is important and CIBC makes it easy to choose what's best for you.

How to Apply for Your Business Account

At CIBC we are committed to serving your business needs.

Step 1

Please take a few moments to complete the Business Account Application and Agreement. Section 8 will be completed in your next branch visit.

We'll save you time by setting up your account number, starter cheques and Convenience Cards in advance.

- We ask for information about your principal(s). A Principal is a person with an equity (ownership) interest in your business. You are only required to provide the details of Principals with 25% or more equity ownership.
- For Partnerships, Corporations, and Unincorporated Associations, we ask you to provide the names and titles (if applicable) of Signing Officers or authorized signatories who will demonstrate Signing Authority on behalf of the Business.

An individual with signing authority is authorized by the company to perform certain functions such as withdrawals, transfers and payments on behalf of the company.

Signing Officers of Unincorporated Associations are asked to provide their title along with their current occupation in Section 2.

Step 2

Fax or return the application and your business name registration to your CIBC Representative.

Step 3

Come see us.

We'll review your fax and call you for an appointment (or call us to suggest a time). Please bring with you the items listed below. We need these items to identify you, for security, and to comply with Canadian law.

When you visit us:

All Principals and any persons to sign on the account are required to attend with two pieces of original personal identification (include one with photo).

Please bring the following:

- The original application

For sole proprietors using a business name (not incorporated, nor a partnership):

- Your original business name registration

For partnerships

- Your original partnership registration (or partnership agreement where provincial law does not require registration)

For corporations

- Your original articles of incorporation or certificate of incorporation
- Most recent filing with your incorporating jurisdiction, listing your directors
- Trade Name Registration, if applicable

If your corporation has been in existence for more than one year, you are also required to provide one of the following documents. The document must have been issued within the past year:

- Certificate of Corporate Status
- Certificate of Existence
- Company's Annual Report for past fiscal year
- Company's most recent Notice of Assessment
- Current business license or vendor permits
- Current health or safety certificates
- Current Liquor license

For unincorporated associations

- Your association's original constitution and by-laws

Your CIBC Representative may ask you to bring additional items.

6. Certification and Consent of Principals and the Business

Tax Residency /Status Declaration:

As required by Canadian law, I declare that the Tax residency information and US Person status provided (including any Tax Identification Number) are, to the best of my knowledge and belief, correct and complete. If any of this information changes, I will provide CIBC with the updated information within 30 days. Failure to provide satisfactory self-certification of Tax residency or US Person status may result in my account information being reported to the relevant tax authority and I may be subject to a penalty under the Income Tax Act.

Each of the undersigned certifies both personally and on behalf of the Business that he and/or she is a principal of the Business and that the information contained in this Business Account Application and Agreement, including without limitation with respect to ownership, control and structure of the Business, is complete and accurate in all respects, and each of the undersigned agrees to notify CIBC immediately in writing of any change to such information. Each of the undersigned acknowledges and consents both personally and on behalf of the Business to the following:

CIBC may collect Information (as defined below) during the course of your relationship with CIBC from credit bureaus, other financial institutions, and references you provide CIBC. CIBC may also disclose Information to credit bureaus and financial institutions. (The word "Information" means financial and financially-related information about you, in a business or personal capacity, including information to identify you or qualify you and/or the Business for products and services, or information that CIBC needs for regulatory requirements.) CIBC may use Information to identify you, protect you and CIBC both from fraud and error, understand your needs and eligibility for services, recommend particular products and services to meet your needs, provide ongoing service, and comply with legal and regulatory requirements. This is explained in the CIBC privacy brochure, Your Privacy Is Protected, available at any branch or www.cibc.com, which describes how the CIBC group collects, uses, discloses, and retains information about you and the products and services you use.

Specific Consents.

Direct Marketing. CIBC may tell you about products and services through direct mail, telephone, and other direct means.

Disclosure within the CIBC group. CIBC may share Information within the CIBC group so that the CIBC group may tell you about products and services.

If you don't wish to consent to (a) or (b), you can contact CIBC at 1 800 465-CIBC (2422) at any time. You will not be refused credit or other services just because you withdraw your consent to (a) or (b). The CIBC group includes CIBC and its subsidiaries that currently offer deposits, loans, mutual funds, securities trading, mortgages, trust and insurance services.

Including your Social Insurance Number in this credit bureau request is the best way to make sure credit bureau information accurately refers to you. However, this is completely voluntary, and if you choose not to give us permission, this by itself will not prevent you from continuing the product application.

(First Principal) I give my consent to CIBC to include my SIN in the credit bureau request. Yes No

(Second Principal) I give my consent to CIBC to include my SIN in the credit bureau request. Yes No

(Third Principal) I give my consent to CIBC to include my SIN in the credit bureau request. Yes No
